READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Wisdom 12:13, 16=19
Romans 8:26-27
Matthew 13:24-43

Dear All. Christ's Peace!

Please join me in welcoming Father Jose Lim to our parish. Father Jose was ordained two weeks ago and will be with us for eight weeks before returning to studies in Rome. It is a blessing to have Father here.

July Palooza Luau - Have you submitted your RSVP for our Parish Summer Palooza Luau on Thursday, July 27 from 5:30 to 7:30 pm? The evening is all about being outdoors, hanging with friends, playing games, and good eats. It is a story of choices and no choices. You get no choice when it comes to food. You can have dirty water hotdogs or bring your own. You get tons of choices when it comes to the games. There will be more games than you can imagine. Are you in tip top shape and have amazing coordination and aim? We have games for you. Do you do better in a chair? We have games for you. Are you a toddler or a SAGE or somewhere in between? We have games for you. We also hope for many cornhole game sets. If you can bring one, please say so when you register. There will be Drums Alive! and live music. And prizes for the outstanding Hawaiian shirt and outstanding lei. Please go to our parish webpage at sjmillstone.com to let us know if you are coming.

Religious Education – Through the grace of God and the help of the entire Saint Joseph community, all teacher positions have been filled for CCD! Our next step is registration starting July 17. Thank you to all who are pitching in – and thanks for making the opening season such a good one for Kelly, our new CCD director.

Will Your Ministry Need Donations of Money or Physical Items? – Victor is already making great strides toward organizing our collections of money and physical items (clothes, books, tools, etc.). Starting in September, we will have year-long schedules for monetary donations to the Poor Box and donations of physical items to the collection bins. The planning helps assure that every worthy cause gets support and that you can set giving priorities. If your ministry will need donations of money or physical items, email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com. We will continue to collect food every week and we will always respond to disasters.

With big blessings for all of you and an extra prayer that, if you are taking some away time or some downtime, it will be greatly blessed. And with hopes to see you at the Parish Luau Palooza –

Father Hank

GOING AWAY MESSAGE

As I begin my new journey, I wanted the opportunity to thank you and our parish for the support, prayers and guidance that you have given me. Georgette and I are extremely appreciative of your support, especially after we lost our older daughter, Nicole. As Georgette said, coming here for the funeral and then the reception was like being cloaked in love. What better witness of being Christ to one another!

I would also like to welcome Kelly Craigle as my replacement. My prayer is that he finds the same support and generosity that has been shown to my family and me. I encourage you to reach out to him as he settles in and introduce yourself. His contact information is 908-864-0369 and kcraigle@sjmillstone.com.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank Linda Mackiw and our Parish Staff for their support.... and patience over all these years. Linda has been a tremendous gift to our parish and to me. Please keep her, Kelly and our staff in your prayers as they begin the transition this summer.

Jim Jungels

HILLSBOROUGH FOOD BANK

Hunger doesn't take a vacation. Summer is the season when parishioners travel and donations to the food bank typically dwindle a little. But the folks who need the food do not travel and still need the food. Please be as generous as you are able.

SAGES ACTIVITIES

Exercise: Healthy Bones resumed on Thursdays at 10:00 am in the Parish Hall. No registration required. In August we will take a pause.

Topic Tuesday – July 18 Mark your calendars for a lecture on “George Washington, NJ & the Revolutionary War.”. Please register with AnnaMaria.

If you know of a suitable instructor(s) please reach out to AnnaMaria at arealbuto@sjmillstone.com

Help us Connect with Homebound Parishioners – Our parish reaches out several times each year to remind them they are loved and not forgotten. If there is anyone who is not on our list and should be, please contact AnnaMaria at arealbuto@sjmillstone.com or 908-864-0334.

THIRD WORLD DAY of GRANDPARENTS and THE ELDERLY Sunday, July 23, 2023

The Vatican has granted a Plenary Indulgence (under the normal conditions of detachment from sin, reception of sacramental confession and Eucharistic communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to grandparents, the elderly, and all the faithful who, motivated by the true spirit of penance and charity, celebrate and participate in the Third World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly on July 23, 2023.

For those sick elderly, or others unable to leave their homes for serious reasons, they may spiritually join in the sacred celebrations of the day by offering their prayers, pains, and sufferings particularly while remotely participating in a liturgical celebration.

HEROIC MEN

Men have a heroic call to follow Christ's example of leadership, learning, and service with our families. But we can't do it alone. Jesus Christ shows us how to be a real man, and a heroic leader through prayer, learning, and purpose. HEROIC MEN (powered by the Catholic Men's Leadership Alliance) is a 100% free, Catholic streaming platform designed especially for men who want to discover (or re-discover) the truth, beauty, and goodness of the Catholic faith. They curate and stream the best content to engage, educate, and equip men for mission. For more information or to sign up for a free account, please visit <https://heroicmen.com/>.

THOUGHTS FROM GOD'S GARDEN

Carmel inn New Jersey
Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

NEW JERSEY is called the Garden State for good reason. Inside the Garden State there is another garden, God's Garden, better known as the Carmel of Mary Immaculate and St. Mary Magdalen. "Carmel" is a Hebrew word meaning "the Garden of God". A "Carmel" is a monastery of the Carmelite Order, named for Mount Carmel in the Holy Land. The Carmel of Mary Immaculate is in Flemington, in Hunterdon County, and it is the home to a dozen contemplative Nuns who devote their lives to praying for the Church and the world.

THE CARMELITE ORDER began on Mount Carmel around 1208 and a reformed branch was established by St. Teresa of Avila in Spain in 1562. The best-known Carmelite is St. Therese of the Child Jesus, the Little Flower, who was born 150 years ago. We Carmelites in Flemington carry on their charism of prayer and community life in the solitude of the cloister, and, like Therese, we try to be Love in the Heart of the Church.

YOU ARE WELCOME to visit the Carmel at 26 Harmony Road in Flemington to speak with a Nun at the Turn, to pray in the Chapel or visit the St. Teresa Gift Shop. Prayer requests are always welcome.

Pause before speaking

Words are deeds, as theologian Peter Kreeft astutely reminds us. When we speak our thoughts into the air, we are doing something. So many words circulate in the machinery of our media that we tend to take them for granted and view them as cheap or even meaningless. But words matter. They take root in our minds and hearts, as well as in the thoughts and feelings of people who receive them from us. Before you utter the response, make the call, or hit the send key, pause to contemplate what impact your words may have on someone else.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:10-11; Romans 8:18-23; Matthew 13:1-23 (103). "My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it."

Monday, Jul 17, 2023

Heartfelt holiness

Like any family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph experienced misunderstandings, disagreements, and hurt feelings within the family unit. Some of those experiences are told in the gospels, but there were surely others we never learned about. The Holy Family is a model for all families in the struggles and joys of family life. There are many devotional prayers to the Holy Family, including a litany and even a devotion to the hearts of the Holy Family. Most Catholics are familiar with the images of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, but perhaps less so with the Chaste Heart of Joseph. Consider adorning your family home with artwork of all three.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 1:8-14, 22; Matthew 10:34-11:1 (389). "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me."

Tuesday, Jul 18, 2023

Instituting a better bedside manner

Hospitals in Rome and throughout Europe were abysmal in the 1500s, when Camillus de Lellis was admitted—twice—with an infected leg. Hospital workers were poor, often beggars and prisoners, who showed up mostly for free meals. Some even stole food from patients! Saint Camillus was so disgusted by this treatment that he got up from his bed to provide comfort—and cleanliness—to other patients. Thus his vocation was born, along with the Servants of the Sick, the religious institute Camillus founded after becoming a priest. A great Catholic tradition was likewise born: not just spiritual solace but clean and professional care as well. Visit the Catholic Health Association website to pray for hospital workers.

MEMORIAL OF CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 2:1-15a; Matthew 11:20-24 (390). "She was moved with pity for him."

Wednesday, Jul 19, 2023

Mercy me

Our tradition contains a variety of words to describe "missing the mark" when it comes to personal conduct: sin, transgression, and iniquity, a word used hundreds of times in scripture. Iniquity describes willful harming, where we choose to hurt or act with malice. It gets at the character or quality of our intentions. In a sense, our actions are all we really ever own. We carry them with us and we fall short at times. Thankfully, God's mercy is greater even than our iniquity. Examine your conscience, make amends where possible, and call upon the Lord's mercy. Ask God to crown you with kindness and compassion, as today's psalm promises.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 3:1-6, 9-12; Matthew 11:25-27 (391).

"The Lord is kind and merciful. He pardons all your iniquities, he heals all your ills. He redeems your life from destruction, he crowns you with kindness and compassion."

Inspiration for a dangerous mission

Today's saint, Apollinaris, was a bishop during the first century of the church, a dangerous time to be a Christian. Roman authorities and others disliked the followers of Jesus for disrupting social norms and threatening a social order that gave Roman emperors God-like authority. Christianity was also a new movement, making it even more untrustworthy. Apollinaris was bishop of Ravenna, Italy, and for that public role he was savagely beaten, later dying of his wounds. His martyrdom inspired early disciples. Who inspires you to live dangerously in faith?

MEMORIAL OF APOLLINARIS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 3:13-20; Matthew 11:28-30 (392). "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart."

Friday, Jul 21, 2023

A beautiful work in progress

God is the creator par excellence and invites all of creation, especially human beings, to share in the gift of creating. God enables us "to be intelligent and free causes in order to complete the work of creation, to perfect its harmony" (Catechism §307). There is a beauty in the incompleteness or "unfinishedness" of creation. Not only does it give us the opportunity to follow God's lead, but, according to distinguished professor and theologian Sister Anne Patrick, S.N.J.M., it reveals a beauty of its own and stirs us to gratitude for creation's patient unfolding. What gifts do you find in your own acts of creating?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 11:10—12:14; Matthew 12:1-8 (393). "I say to you, something greater than the temple is here."

Saturday, Jul 22, 2023

Who do you say she is?

No biblical figure is surrounded by more mystery than Mary Magdalene. Who was she, really? What we know from the texts, says Catholic writer James Carroll, is that she was a leader in the community of Jesus' followers. While the men abandoned Jesus in his hour of need, Mary was one of the women who stayed with him even through the Crucifixion. She was the first person to whom Jesus appeared after his Resurrection and the first to preach that Good News, and her status as an apostle in the early church rivaled even that of Peter. Over time, her status was questioned, her reputation tarnished. Powerful women have contended with such treatment throughout the ages. Mary Magdalene stands as a symbol for gender equity and justice as well as faithful witness.

FEAST OF MARY MAGDALENE, APOSTLE TO THE APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: Song of Songs 3:1-4b or 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603). "On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
