READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

1 Kings 3:5,7-12

Romans 8:28-30

Matthew 13:44-52

Dear All. Christ's Peace!

Tuesday Holy Hour - If we have sufficient interest, and I trust we will, we will continue beyond Labor Day and try to find an additional time outside of business hours. We had planned to start this practice before the pandemic. The Eucharistic Renewal year and Father Jose's presence make the time right.

Our Year of Eucharistic Renewal – September will also mark the more active start of our Year of Eucharistic Renewal. We will focus on one question: "What do I mean when I say 'Amen' as I receive Communion?" How might you answer that question today?

God Bless Our Indoor Gardeners – These folks are quiet heroes who keep our church looking great. Without them, the place would feel far less welcoming. They work their tails off at Christmas and Easter, and labor all year to keep the indoor plants looking healthy and our indoor spaces worthy of prayer.

God Bless Our Outdoor Gardeners – Our outdoor spaces look beautiful because a few people work very hard to keep them that way. They work on the triangle at Yorktown and Colonial, the flower beds by the church sign, the church door and the St Francis Garden, as well as the planters all around and the recently planted Memorial Row of Gingko trees. These workers prefer to remain nameless, and I will honor that and thank them on behalf of all parishioners.

God Bless Our Meals Ministry. They are the ones who provide dinners for families in distress, for families that have recently endured a death in the family, and for families that have just had a baby arrive. The ministry has been doing great work for decades and is going strong. God bless their generous hearts and the great work of all who lead and have led them.

With big blessings for all of you and an extra prayer that, if you are taking some away time or some down time, it will be greatly blessed. And with hopes to see you at the Parish Luau Palooza.

Father Hank

THIRD WORLD DAY of GRANDPARENTS and THE ELDERLY Sunday, July 23, 2023

The Vatican has granted a Plenary Indulgence (under the normal conditions of detachment from sin, reception of sacramental confession and Eucharistic communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to grandparents, the elderly, and all the faithful who, motivated by the true spirit of penance and charity, celebrate and participate in the Third World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly on July 23, 2023.

For those sick elderly, or others unable to leave their homes for serious reasons, they may spiritually join in the sacred celebrations of the day by offering their prayers, pains, and sufferings particularly while remotely participating in a liturgical celebration.

PARISH LUAU PALOOZA July 27, 5:30-7:00 PM Parish Grounds

When you walk through the gathering space this weekend, be sure to check out the campus map for all the activities for the event. The map shows the "Aloha Center" where you check in and receive your lei. It also shows the areas blocked out for little kids' games (including Slip-n-Slide, the fishing pond, and tattoos), and big kid games (including bocce, kickball, drums alive, and corn-hole). The competition zones will host rubber-chicken hurling, musical chairs (for three different age groups), and Limbo. Please go to our parish webpage at sjmillstone.com to let us know if you are coming. so we know how many hot dogs to cook.. Bring your hula hoops and Hawaiian shirts..

HILLSBOROUGH FOOD BANK

Great thanks for your remarkable response to the recent request for additional items for the Food Bank. Hunger doesn't take a vacation. Summer is the season when parishioners travel and donations to the food bank typically dwindle a little. But the folks who need the food do not travel and still need the food. Please continue to be as generous as you are able.

CAN YOU SEW SIMPLE ITEMS?

Our Knitting and Crochet Ministry is going great guns. Ministry members provide all sorts of goods that bring extra cheer to people who really need it. That said, we have recently become aware that we could use a "Sewers' Brigade." We have two excellent opportunities to help area organizations serve their people. Both require simple sewing. One, for example, needs folks to rip the sleeves off t-shirts and then sew up the head and arm holes so the t-shirts can be repurposed as shopping bags to carry food from a food pantry. Before we launch the t-shirt collection, we need to know we can sew them. People in the know say this particular project requires "nothing but running a hem" and "involves no detail work." There will also be moments when we need to do a little repair work. Any chance that you have a sewing machine, an hour or two each month, and a willingness to serve as your schedule allows? If so, please email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com.

Will Your Ministry Need Donations of Money or Physical Items between now and July 2024?

Please email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com and let him know if your ministry hopes to seek financial support or donations of material goods during this time period.

VOLUNTEER "VIRTUS" COMPLIANCE

There is good news about becoming compliant if you work or hope to work with children, vulnerable adults, or senior citizens. The initial compliance process is now easier.

You can now become compliant through the parish website. You can start the process by finding the form on the parish website under the tab "Parish Life/Volunteering at St Joes." Questions? Email Dianne Mantilla at dmantilla@sjmillstone.com. Or call her at 908-864-0347.

Thoughts From God's Garden

Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

Carmel in New Jersey

NEW JERSEY is called the Garden State for good reason. Inside the Garden State there is another garden, God's Garden, better known as the Carmel of Mary Immaculate and St. Mary Magdalen. "Carmel" is a Hebrew word meaning "the Garden of God". A "Carmel" is a monastery of the Carmelite Order, named for Mount Carmel in the Holy Land. The Carmel of Mary Immaculate is in Flemington, in Hunterdon County, and it is the home to a dozen contemplative Nuns who devote their lives to praying for the Church and the world.

THE CARMELITE ORDER began on Mount Carmel around 1208 and a reformed branch was established by St. Teresa of Avila in Spain in 1562. The best-known Carmelite is St. Therese of the Child Jesus, the Little Flower, who was born 150 years ago. We Carmelites in Flemington carry on their charism of prayer and community life in the solitude of the cloister, and, like Therese, we try to be Love in the Heart of the Church.

YOU ARE WELCOME to visit the Carmel at 26 Harmony Road in Flemington to speak with a Nun at the Turn, to pray in the Chapel or visit the St. Teresa Gift Shop. Prayer requests are always welcome.

TRANSFORMED BY AND INTO CHRIST

During August we celebrate the biblical feast of the Transfiguration of Christ. What was the meaning of this event in Christ's life and what does it mean for us to be transfigured and transformed by Christ?

Come and encounter Christ in this biblical story and discover ways to be the presence of Christ in our world today.

God's kind of justice

Our exercise of justice can be remarkably heartless. Too often we confuse justice with judgment, imagining justice is only served by lowering the boom on the offending party. The writer of the book of Wisdom describes God's justice as both mighty and clement: that is, powerful and merciful at the same time. Among the loveliest recommendations in the Old Testament is this: "Those who are just must be kind." Written 50 years before the time of Jesus, Wisdom demonstrates why Jesus came to heal, forgive, and rescue—not destroy, condemn, and disown. Make kindness your partner in justice.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 12:13, 16-19; Romans 8:26-27; Matthew 13:24-43 (106). "And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind."

Unburden yourself

With so many things to do, places to go, and people to see, how could the average busy person these days possibly relate to contemplative hermits? Maybe the holy example of hermits, like Sharbel Makhlūf, is exactly what our hectic times need to help us detach from all that consumes us. This 19th-century Lebanese saint was a shepherd-turned-priest who later became a monk and then a hermit. After his death, miracles were attributed to his intercession. At his beatification in 1965, Pope Paul VI said: "May he make us understand, in a world largely fascinated by wealth and comfort, the paramount value of poverty, penance and asceticism, to liberate the soul in its ascent to God."

MEMORIAL OF SHARBEL MAKHLŪF, PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 14:5-18; Matthew 12:38-42 (395). "She came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon."

Walk this way

Annually an estimated 350,000 pilgrims walk the Camino de Santiago—the Way of Saint James. The Camino has a series of medieval routes, but the French Way is most popular. On foot it takes 30 days, crossing foothills of the Pyrenees and many fields, towns, and villages before traversing Galicia. Each route leads to the city of Santiago de Compostela with its magnificent cathedral, believed to be the final resting place of Saint James the Greater, who brought Christianity to Spain. Pope Callixtus II declared in 1122: "The city of Compostela, through the support of Blessed James, has been made sacred for the faithful and a help for those coming to it." Visit the American Pilgrims website to be inspired.

FEAST OF JAMES, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 4:7-15; Matthew 20:20-28 (605). "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve."

Wednesday, Jul 26, 2023

Honor your ancestors

Though we only know of Joachim and Anne from early Christian writings, not biblical texts, it is logical to give a place of prominence to those who, after all, were Jesus' grandparents. It is said they struggled greatly to give birth until God, seeing their holiness, granted them the supreme privilege of parenting Mary, the mother of God. In the Orthodox Church of America, they carry a title of great respect: Holy Ancestors of God. Think of the sacrifices your own grandparents likely made in raising your parents. Let your life honor them.

MEMORIAL OF JOACHIM AND ANNE, PARENTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 16:1-5, 9-15; Matthew 13:1-9 (397). "And he spoke to them at length in parables."

Help build a church with a conscience

Many Catholics take for granted the existence of a robust Catholic social service network. But back in the early 20th century, that was not the case. Poverty was common and social work was emerging as a profession. The social-concerns encyclical Rerum Novarum (1891) and Father William J. Kerby, co-founder of what became Catholic Charities USA, were two important influences that helped develop social consciousness among U.S. Catholics. Thanks to Kerby, who died on this date in 1936, and other activists and thinkers, the American church now includes many anti-poverty efforts. What can you do to further this critical social legacy?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 19:1-2, 9-11, 16-20b; Matthew 13:10-17 (398). "Prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it."

Blessed are those who hear the word

Blessed Charlie Stanley Rother is on the path to sainthood, a surprise for many who knew him as a rather shy and grumpy lad. Stanley grew up in Oklahoma. He was skilled at farming and could fix practically anything. He also felt called to the priesthood. After ordination, another calling came, this time, to go to Guatemala. There, Stanley used his gifts as he lived and worked among the people. With them, he too faced the terror of the raging Guatemalan civil war. He was martyred on July 28, 1981. Befriend Blessed Stanley and ask him to accompany you as you listen for God's calling.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 20:1-17; Matthew 13:18-23 (399). "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

Saturday, Jul 29, 2023

Even the savior of the world needs friends

Martha, Mary, and Lazarus held a privileged place in Jesus' heart. As a wandering preacher who had "no place to lay his head," Jesus knew he always had a place to call home in visiting his three dear friends. Each gifted him in a special way, as the 2021 decree combining their veneration from the Congregation for Divine Worship and Sacraments points out: "Martha generously offered him hospitality, Mary listened attentively to his words, and Lazarus promptly emerged from the tomb at the command of the one who humiliated death." Cherish and nurture your dearest friendships; they are a treasure through thick and thin.

MEMORIAL OF MARTHA, MARY, AND LAZARUS, FRIENDS OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 24:3-8 (400); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607). "Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother [Lazarus, who had died]."
