WANT TO BECOME A CATHOLIC? KNOW SOMEONE WHO MIGHT?

Our parish's Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (now "OCIA," formerly known as "RCIA"), is now welcoming two types of people to the process:

- (a) adults who were baptized (as Catholics or in any Christian denomination) but did not pursue later sacraments or religious formation,
- (b) and (b) people who have not been baptized but want to become Catholics.

Perhaps you or someone you know may be this person? Email Suzanne Kral, skral@sjmillstone.com for more information

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Group Anointing – What a blessing it was to share the sacrament with dozens of you after the 8:00 Mass. What a gracious act of faith you expressed as you chose to be anointed when not in emergency mode. Think about it. It is remarkable. The next after-Mass anointing is next month.

Wednesday Holy Hour – After the 8:35 – The group is steadily growing in size and focus. Let me know what you think would be a good time for a regular adoration hour in the evening. Day? Time?

Our Parish Necrology – All Done – As in "alllllll done." Gone to the printer. Wonderful of you to remember your deceased loved ones. A true act of charity. Amazingly wonderful of the guy who assembles all the info (he might go wiggy if I mention his name), so just say a prayer for "that necrology guy." Thanks, too, to the rest of the team that is gearing up for All Souls' Day.

Mass Intentions for 2024 – The Parish Book of Mass Intentions opens on Sunday, November 12, after the 8:00 am Mass. As always, each parishioner can arrange up to five intentions between November 12 and February 1. More intentions can be arranged after that. Stay tuned for hours when the office will be open.

T-shirt Bags – a Rollicking Success – Hats off to our shirt people. You donated 1,000 T-shirts and converted all but 50 of them into shopping bags. What a labor of love. Parish staff delivered the shirts – to the Camden food pantry run by the Sisters of Saint Joseph – and the recipients were completely thrilled. They thank you profusely for your herculean generosity. Each of the reusable bags you made can hold a week's worth of meat and basic groceries for a family of four. The shirt bags resolve big problems.

Our New Associate Director of CCD? – Do you have great organizational skills, enjoy meeting people, and would like to work 20-25 hours per week? Know someone who fits that bill? Let Father Hank know.

We Still Need Altar Servers! – Thanks to those who already volunteered. Check your email for notice of training times. If you have not yet signed up, think about it and let Father Hank know. It is a good project.

With great big thanks and huge blessings,

Fr. Hank

Look beyond our differences

Healing serious division is challenging. The deeper the breach, the tougher the reconciliation. Since 1567, mainline Protestant denominations have celebrated Reformation Day on this Sunday. Yet in 2016, Pope Francis also acknowledged this observance, reaching out to the head of the Lutheran Church to state: "With gratitude we acknowledge that the Reformation helped give a greater centrality to sacred Scripture in the Church's life." Catholic-Lutheran dialogue continues to express the gifts of the Reformation and to seek forgiveness for division perpetuated by Christians from both traditions. Our witness is stronger together. Collaborate across the aisle.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 22:20-26; 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10; Matthew 22:34-40 (148). "For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth... in every place your faith in God has gone forth."

Healing on tap

When you read the gospels, you can't help but be amazed by how much of Jesus' public ministry was devoted to healing the sick, whether in body, mind, or soul. The church continues Christ's healing ministry as central to its works in myriad ways. Pope Benedict XVI said, "Healing is an essential dimension of the apostolic mission and of Christian faith in general." In fact, he said, Christianity is a "religion of healing." What troubles your body and spirit? Bring it to Jesus to be restored to health and wholeness.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:12-17; Luke 13:10-17 (479). "He laid his hands on her, and she at once stood up straight and glorified God."

Death be not proud

From the Irish we get ancient Celtic elements of Samhain, the idea of a veil separating the living from the dead becoming so thin that it's permeable. From Mexico, we get Día de los Muertos: visiting loved ones' graves, awaiting a festive reunion as the separation between life and death momentarily dissolves. For Halloween, treat-seeking kids dress as devils, vampires, and zombies—traversing yards bedecked with tombstones and skeletons. Or, if we've attended Catholic schools, the focus is more heavenly, with costumes of saints and angels. However we observe this Eve of All Saints, our Catholic belief about the "last things" comes with an assurance that we are meant to return to the one who loved us into existence. "At the evening of life," says Saint John of the Cross, "we shall be judged on our love."

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:18-25; Luke 13:18-21 (480). "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us."

See the saints in living color

Today as the church celebrates All Saints, parishes and websites around the globe will feature an image of 15th-century Dominican Friar Fra Angelico's The Forerunners of Christ with Saints and Martyrs. This much-loved painting was originally part of an altarpiece in the Church of San Domenico near Florence. Most of the hallowed figures in the painting look toward Christ. They appear in long rows and represent important male and female biblical figures, martyrs, and saints, including Saint John the Baptist in the top row, wearing a camel-hair tunic and holding a wooden cross. He looks directly at the viewer and points the way to Christ—exactly his role in salvation history. Christian art is a great tool for learning about the saints, Christian symbolism, and Catholic theology, and the paintings and frescoes of Fra Angelico are a good place to start.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS (HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION)

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). "Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God."

Thursday, Nov 02, 2023

A work in progress

The notion of "purgatory" is really quite simple and true to human experience. All of life is a process, and our best efforts can lead to progress but never perfection in this lifetime. What makes today special is that we can all participate in that process with our dearly departed, by our prayers, our good and generous deeds, and at Mass. Lend a helping hand today to those who are further along in the process. And may we all meet again one day, and, in the meantime we pray, "May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). "And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day."

The struggle continues

On September 30, 1962 riots broke out at the University of Mississippi as James Meredith, accompanied by U.S. marshals, walked to campus to register for classes. Many fought to keep him out, but justice prevailed. Meredith would become the first black student at Ole Miss. Today, the nearby church of St. John the Evangelist honors this memory with a stained-glass window of Martin de Porres facing the street where Meredith began his walk to the university. De Porres, too, had experienced racism and was barred from becoming a priest in 17th-century Peru because of the color of his skin. Saint Martin de Porres, pray for us on the long march of equality.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 9:1-5; Luke 14:1-6 (483). "My conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness."

Saturday, Nov 04, 2023

Be an instrument of change

During his first homily as pope in 2013, Pope Francis quoted Léon Bloy, a 20th-century French novelist who was known for his passionate defense of the faith. In 1904 he became friends with Raïssa Maritain, a poet, philosopher, and Hasidic Jew. She was so influenced by Bloy that she, along with her well-known husband Jacques, and her sister Vera, converted to Catholicism, with Bloy as sponsor. The "three Maritains" as they were known, took their place at the center of a circle of French Catholic intellectuals. Raïssa died on this day in 1960. What kind of influence might you have on those searching for a faith to believe in?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 11:1-2a, 11-12, 25-29; Luke 14:1, 7-11 (484). "The one who humbles himself will be exalted."
