Wednesday HOLY HOUR – after 8:35 Mass.
Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
On the Main Altar of the Church.

In 1925 Pope Pius XI designated that the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year (church calendar) is to be celebrated as “Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.” More commonly referred to as the Feast of Christ the King, this feast is a fitting closure to a year that began with readings that spoke of waiting for a Messiah and followed with the birth of Jesus, his life, teaching, passion, death, resurrection and ascension into heaven where we believe he reigns over the entire universe. The Feast of Christ the King is also celebrated by many Protestant churches including Anglicans and Lutherans.

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

CHRISTMAS FLOWER ENVELOPES

Would you like to make a donation towards our Christmas Memorial Flower Program in remembrance of a deceased loved one or to honor someone? Your contributions will provide for next year's flowers – just like last year's contributions provide for this year's. The envelopes will be available in the Gathering Space. You may drop them in the baskets on the way out of church... Names will be posted in the bulletins after Christmas. Thank you for helping to make our church beautiful for Christmas.

O Holy Nights!

Sunday evening, November 26:

GRAND lighting of trees and pavilion

Sunday morning, December 3:

O Holy Pancakes, after morning Masses

Sunday evening, December 10:

Making Merry Music.

It will include O Holy Line-dancing and O Holy Tailgating – with a hitch. The theme for the tailgating is “We Three Kings.” Go wild with the theme. There will be lots of prizes that night and everyone will receive a crown. So start thinking – about your costume and your tailgate.

Sunday evening, December 17:

Live Nativity

NB 1 – The Shepherd's Path is going high-tech this year with installations in the woods – stop, do the QR code, listen to a piece of salvation history, move on.

NB 2 – Be prepared to provide a BRIEF explanation of your Memorial Tree's decorations. Folks will do a QR code, scroll down, and read about your tree!

SAGES ACTIVITIES

For more information or to register for events contact AnnaMaria at arealbuto@sjmillstone.com or 908-864-0334.

THANK YOU

Over the last several weeks, the parishioners at St. Joseph Parish in Hillsborough made and delivered 1,000 t-shirt bags to the Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Center. Each bag is used to bundle and distribute frozen meats along with other shopping bags of perishable and nonperishable food to feed a family. That means 1,000 bags equals 1,000 families fed! The Sisters of Saint Joseph are so very grateful for the "hands-on" action of collecting and sewing the meat bags for our food pantry. The recycled t-shirts are a great way to respect the Earth. This acknowledgement was posted on Instagram and FaceBook by the Sisters of St. Joseph who oversee the Neighborhood Center in Camden...

THE HOSPITALITY of ADVENT

Why not prepare for Christmas by journeying through Advent by using this program using your computer at a time that is convenient for you?

We are pleased to announce that this year, Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology will reflect daily on The Hospitality of Advent. Consider with us how Mary, Joseph, Elizabeth, and other great figures of the Gospels and Church tradition welcomed Jesus into their hearts.

How might Jesus be beckoning us this Advent to a greater understanding and appreciation of God's desires to come to us, dwell within us, and be welcomed into our homes and hearts? How might this year's Advent be a journey of an ever-deepening hospitality of the heart?

We will be offering meditations by email from December 3 through December 24.

We look forward to journeying with you through this Advent season as we reflect on these questions, and more, in preparation for the coming of our Lord at Christmas!

Lean Into Waiting

All the people on the first pages of Luke's gospel are WAITING. Mary is waiting...Simeon and Anna are waiting...Zechariah and Elizabeth are waiting. We also wait. This season of Advent reminds us that God-With-Us blesses us in the waiting. God invites us to lean into the "waitings" of our lives. See them as active blessings, times of grace, inviting us to live in new ways. Come and see! Light supper included.

Save the best for last

The film industry has always had a love affair with the afterlife. From It's a Wonderful Life to Heaven Can Wait to Ghost to Flatliners, stories remind us that our choices in this world have ramifications in the next. More recent shows—Dead Like Me, The Good Life, After Life, and Hotel del Luna among many others—are less traditionally religious but no less curious about what comes next. Every culture and generation seems to sense the need for spirit guides and guardians, as well as justice and an hour of reckoning. As the church year closes, contemplate the ledger of your years. Does it add up to a heavenly ending?

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17; 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28; Matthew 25:31-46 (160). "He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.'"

Conversion can be revolutionary

British poet Alice Meynell, who died on this day in 1922, converted to Catholicism while recovering from chronic illness, and her writing thereafter turned to religious subjects. She married a Catholic newspaper publisher and founded a Catholic suffragist organization. When a British priest preached against giving women the right to vote because it would risk "bringing a revolution of the first magnitude," Meynell replied, "...the vaster the magnitude of the revolution, the better." One hundred years after her death, the struggle for equality continues. How do the teachings of Jesus inform your work for justice?

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 1:1-6, 8-20; Luke 21:1-4 (503). "She, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood."

Tuesday, Nov 28, 2023

Little lamb, who made thee?

Happy birthday to the English poet William Blake, born this day in 1757. Though not Catholic, he's inspired great Catholic poets and many of his poems—like "Jerusalem"—became hymns. Trappist monk Thomas Merton wrote his master's thesis on Blake, emphasizing his spiritual significance in Seven Storey Mountain: "His rebellion ... was fundamentally the rebellion of the saints. It was the rebellion of the lover of the living God, the rebellion of the one whose desire of God was so intense and irresistible that it condemned, with all its might, all the hypocrisy and petty sensuality and skepticism and materialism" of organized religion. Pray for all who search for God but find obstacles in religious institutions—and enjoy Blake's "The Lamb."

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 2:31-45; Luke 21:5-11 (504). "Jesus said, 'All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.'"

Gracious encounters of the digital kind

Did you buy anything on Cyber Monday? Did you make a charitable donation yesterday, on Giving Tuesday? Whether you did or not, this week's digital focus continues today, which is recognized as Electronic Greetings Day. Pope Francis' 2020 encyclical Fratelli Tutti considers how the internet is a powerful tool and how it's our job to use it in a way that makes the world better. "We need constantly to ensure that present-day forms of communication are in fact guiding us to generous encounter with others," he writes. Make time today to send an encouraging email or ecard to someone who needs to hear from you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 5:1-6, 13-14, 16-17, 23-28; Luke 21:12-19 (505). "The writing I will read for you, O king, and tell you what it means."

Be a first responder

Is there an Andy, Andre, or Andrea in your life? Whether they know it or not, they bear the name of the Apostle Andrew, one of the fishermen Jesus famously called to be "fishers of men." The Eastern church recognizes Andrew as the first to be called by Jesus. Tradition has it that Andrew was crucified on an X-shaped cross because he felt unworthy to die on a cross identical to Christ's. Andrew led the way in accepting Jesus' invitation to follow him. How will your life today respond to that invitation?

FEAST OF ANDREW, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 10:9-18; Matthew 4:18-22 (684). "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Compassionate in the face of controversy

St. Vincent Medical Center in Manhattan, now closed, was in the eye of the AIDS epidemic storm of the 1980s and 1990s. A Catholic hospital run by the Sisters of Charity, St. Vincent opened its doors to care for those who were sick and dying from AIDS. Some staff disagreed with this stance and left. But not the sisters. They stayed true to Jesus' command to care for the suffering, especially those cast aside by society. They entered into dialogue with the gay community, activists, and hospital administrators to better understand their patients and how best to serve them. May we remember their unwavering commitment and compassion—and do likewise.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:2-14; Luke 21:29-33 (507). "Know that the Kingdom of God is near."

Saturday, Dec 02, 2023

Be a freedom fighter

The term modern slavery covers practices such as forced labor, debt bondage, forced marriage, and human trafficking ... situations of exploitation enforced by violence, coercion, or deception. Here's the shocking news: Modern slavery has increased significantly in the past five years. Ten million more people, largely women and children, were trapped in modern slavery in 2021 compared to 2016, bringing the total estimate to 50 million worldwide. Our God is a God of freedom, who releases us from bondage of all kinds. On this U.N. International Day for the Abolition of Slavery, raise your voice in a phone call, email, or letter to elected officials. Let's put an end to this!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:15-27; Luke 21:34-36 (508). "Be vigilant at all times."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
