"This Week"

Are you receiving "This Week," the e-letter that Father Hank sends out every Friday? It is the best way to stay current on timely parish news, especially when it comes to late-breaking announcements or big news for the upcoming weekend. Simply sign up and it will appear in your email each Friday. Go to our parish homepage at www.sjmillstone.com and sign up and start receiving updates.

The Epiphany of the Lord: Matthew 2:1-12

Only two of the Gospels contain stories about the birth of Jesus. In Luke's Gospel, it is shepherds who hear a message from an angel and go to Bethlehem where they find Mary and Joseph with the newborn infant lying in a manger. In today's Gospel, Matthew describes a group of magi who are sent by King Herod to find "the newborn king of the Jews." The magi go to Bethlehem where a star stops over a house where they find Jesus and his mother. By this time, Jesus and his family are no longer in the stable but in a home. Most Biblical scholars agree that Jesus was somewhere between a few weeks to two years old when the magi visited

Looking Back and Ahead!

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

I hope and trust your celebration of Christmas included moments of significant grace. I doubly hope that for the scores of parishioners who labored selflessly to make the Christmas Masses beautiful, prayerful, and disaster-free. It was excellent to see so many people at all the Masses, including people who came more frequently before the pandemic. This trend is our friend, especially when it points toward community growth.

I join Victor Fung and the ministry leaders of all our Outreach Ministries in thanking you for the inspiration you have provided throughout 2023. Your unwavering support and generous participation make a big and positive difference to our neighbors in need. Because of your compassionate involvement, many of "the last, the least, and the littlest" experience human and divine love. We are excited about the service opportunities the coming year holds, and we look forward to continuing our shared journey of service and outreach with you.

Thanks for a Fine Year in Religious Education – A big thank you to our catechists, volunteers, students and families for a terrific first semester of our CCD year! You welcomed Kelly with your usual boundless enthusiasm and have totally embraced the Yee-Haw spirit. We look forward to the new year, when our second graders will celebrate their First Communions, our eighth graders will experience Confirmation, and all our CCD students will continue to grow in their faith and love for God and each other. We hope every CCD family has a greatly blessed New Year!

I send this with great thanks and blessings, and an extra prayer for you and your loved ones as we enter 2024.

Healing Prayer – Next Weekend January 13-14, 2024

WHAT IS HEALING PRAYER?

Throughout our Catholic history, we have cared for the sick using both prayer and medical knowledge. Today we see our hospitals using medical science as well as chaplains, healing prayers, and the Sacrament of the Sick. Both Scientific and Religious types of medical care work together to do God's will.

- Healing Prayer is a prayer of Petition with a member of the prayer team for healing or a special intention. It can be requested by a person, their family, or a friend.
- It is a kind of prayer Christians have been making since New Testament times.
- It expects God will heal, although God may not heal what we expect.
- It is not limited to physical healing, but can heal mind, body, spirit and/or soul.
- It may be repeated.
- It often includes a prayer for help and guidance for family members, friends or medical personnel.
- It does not replace normal medical care.
- It is not a sacrament, but a sacramental (like the rosary or benediction).

You are welcome to request healing prayer at our monthly sessions after mass on the 2nd Sunday of the month.

SENIOR RESIDENCE EUCHARISTIC MINISTRY:

Filling the Spiritual Void

For those who are no longer a regular part of a Catholic faith community due to life changes and physical limitations, receiving the Eucharist each week becomes a blessed event which they cherish. We'd love to have you join us! No formal commitment. Try it and see. Shadow one of the existing ministers to experience what we do. You will be amazed at how inspiring and rewarding this ministry can be. For more info, contact Terri Macor 908-917-2376 or vettegirl53@comcast.net.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Preparation of the Gifts

\pre-pə-'rā-shən | 'gifts\

The set of ceremonial actions at Mass preceding the Eucharistic Prayer and Holy Communion. Includes dressing of the altar; bringing forward the bread and wine; and the community's personal sacrifices taken up in the collection. Formerly called the Offertory. The community offers a song of praise for all these gifts as the priest washes his hands in a purification rite.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-preparation-gifts>

CONTEXT

The Preparation of the Gifts allows time for the preparation of our hearts. Like the Magi bearing gifts and doing homage to Majesty, we bring our gifts and our praise to the Table. —Father Paul Boudreau

God has first blessed us with the gift of creation. Humans take those gifts given, wheat and grapes, and, using our creativity, make bread and wine. Then, we bring those gifts we have received and labored over to present them at the Altar/Table that they might be transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ. Finally, we receive them back in Communion. The procession of the Gifts says, in essence, "Behold the gifts God has given us!" —Father Roc O'Connor, S.J.

WHY IT MATTERS

We take great care preparing other festive tables for our most cherished gatherings. Could we do less for the table where the Real Presence of Christ will be made tangible for us?

From the General Instructions of the Roman Missal: The altar or Lord's table, which is the center of the whole Liturgy of the Eucharist, is made ready. . . . The offerings are then brought forward. It is a praiseworthy practice for the bread and wine to be presented by the faithful (73).

RELATED WORDS

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Is Epiphany about giving or getting gifts?

"We three kings of Orient are/ bearing gifts we traverse afar." Nowhere in the gospels does it claim there are three kings. They are magi, hereditary priests of the ancient Medes and Persians. At least the carol gets one thing right: this wise group does bear gifts. Gold symbolizes wealth and power. Frankincense, used in prayer, represents the divine Presence. Myrrh prepares bodies for burial. It's an ominous sign that would make a startling gift. . . . But they were appropriate honors for the King of the Universe, the Divine Son, and the crucified Lord.

We also bear Jesus gifts at every Eucharist: bread, wine, and our financial sacrifice. "Made by human hands," these gifts are transformed and returned to us as the Body and Blood of Christ, and then redistributed for those in need.

More gifts come to us by way of this shared Table. Grace pours out on the assembly. Grace forgives sin, and rescues us from every evil. This is one gift you don't want to put at the bottom of a closet.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <https://tinyurl.com/QCA-presentation-gifts>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD (JANUARY 7)

Remember our migrant roots

America was once renowned as the land where people could come to breathe freely. Scripture reminds us of the considerable gifts that migrant people bring with them. Whether king or commoner, each person offers what they have to make the community more dynamic.

READINGS: saiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12 (20 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/010724.cfm>). "Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you."

FAITH IN ACTION

Let's welcome the newcomer and remember that the infant Jesus was once a migrant, too.
