This Week in Prayer, Service & Community

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Lent has sprung and spring is almost here. I hope your Lent is off to a good start and will be blessed. This year, our Lenten responses to God unfold in a season of Eucharistic Renewal. That makes a difference.

LENT in THE YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Our church's inspired designers provided one place for Mass and another for a tabernacle. In keeping with the year of Eucharistic Renewal, this seems a good season to facilitate connections between parishioners and our Lord's Eucharistic presence. It seems especially appropriate to help our young people, who might never visit our Blessed Sacrament Chapel, to recognize, understand, and appreciate the Blessed Sacrament. It also seems a good season to address the Eucharistic hungers of the less young. Hence, as of Ash Wednesday night, the Blessed Sacrament is in the church, between the altar and the cross. This has generated some FAQs. Is the change permanent? – The current plan is to keep the small tabernacle in the church for Lent and the Easter season and then remove it. If lots and lots of people find the new arrangement problematic, I will remove the tabernacle before Pentecost. If lots and lots of parishioners want to make the situation permanent, we will talk.

Does this change our use of the church? – No. We rarely use the church for secular events. If the occasion arises, we will remove the Blessed Sacrament for the occasion.

Does this change how I enter and leave church? – For sure. It is appropriate to genuflect when entering and leaving, either as you enter church or when you enter your pew. This is a very good lesson for parents to share with children. It provides some great teaching opportunities.

Does this change how we receive Communion? No. For Communion, the celebrant will take two or three ciboria out of the tabernacle and then put them back. Nothing else changes.

The reason for the tabernacle is simple: to enrich our connection with Jesus in this Eucharistic year.

This topic surfaces another renewal subject, the moment of consecration. Some like bells. Others prefer radical silence. Long before I arrived, radical silence became the parish goal. I congratulate you for the progress we have recently made in this direction. Many parishioners have observed that we become intensely silent at the consecration. Good for you. Our next step in this direction will be to still the occasional walker. The ushers will more and more ask people to stay at the door for the consecration and return to their seats when it is finished. Mostly, it is just a few youngsters returning from the restrooms. It is another good learning moment.

Great thanks and continued blessings for your Lent,

Fr. Hank

GREAT NEWS!

Introducing PRAYER PARTNERS

As of March 10th, what is formerly the Healing Ministry will become a new ministry called "Prayer Partners". A transition from strictly healing prayer to general intercessory prayers. You are encouraged to bring anything that you pray for to the team, for "wherever two or more are gathered in my name there I am." The team will also pray that God's blessings of love, healing, comfort, and consolation will be yours. Prayer partners, as before with Healing, will be available the second weekend of the month after mass.

(formerly IHN)

HOME, an organization made up of area churches, provides temporary housing for homeless families. Our parish has a long history with this organization, and we currently collaborate with the Millstone Reformed Church when they house families at their church. The Reformed Church is hosting HOME families the week of March 3. If you can help with any part of the effort (i.e., making meals, evening hosting, or overnight hosting), please email Tina Androulakis at tina@androulakis.com.

"This Week"

Are you receiving "This Week," the e-letter that Father Hank sends out every Friday? It is the best way to stay current on timely parish news, especially when it comes to late-breaking announcements or big news for the upcoming weekend. Simply sign up and it will appear in your email each Friday. Go to our parish homepage at www.sjmillstone.com and sign up and start receiving updates.

What We Give Up ... Is Made Holy

Giving up something for Lent is a solidly established custom. It is seen as a good spiritual practice that detaches us from something that we cherish to help us focus on Jesus. We give up something we like to focus on the one we love.

But the phrase "to give up" doesn't just mean doing without. It also means, quite literally, to give upward, to hand something up to God, and to hand something up to God is to make it holy, for God sanctifies everything He touches.

So when we have given up chocolate or coffee or our cellphone or the internet or whatever it is that we have sacrificed for Lent, it might be surprising to realize that when God gives it back to us it has become holy, for that is what it means to sacrifice: sacrum facere, to "make something holy".

WORD OF THE WEEK

Agnus Dei \äg-nus-'dā\

Latin term for "Lamb of God." A title given to Jesus by John the Baptist (John 1:29); the litany sung or said by the assembly at Mass before Communion ("Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world . . .") introduced into the Roman Rite in the seventh century by Pope Sixtus; an image of a lamb often with a halo and a banner and cross used as a symbol of Christ; a wax disc sacramental.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-agnus-dei>

CONTEXT

Either sin is with you, lying on your shoulders, or it is lying on Christ, the Lamb of God [Agnus Dei]. Now if it is lying on your back, you are lost; but if it is resting on Christ, you are free, and you will be saved. Choose what you want.

—Martin Luther

The address to the Lamb of God does not refer to Christ simply, but rather to Christ present in the Eucharist as a sacrificial offering.

—Joseph A. Jungmann, S.J., The Mass of the Roman Rite

WHY IT MATTERS

The Passover lamb is the symbol of God's people passing over from slavery and death to freedom and life (Exodus 12). A "lamb led to slaughter" is Isaiah's prophesy of God's faithful servant (Isaiah 53:7). The victorious Lamb in Revelation is the light of God's holy city (Revelation 21:9-22:5). With all of salvation history as its backdrop, the Agnus Dei epitomizes the sacrifice of Jesus who achieves our freedom from sin and death. "It is love to the end," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "that confers on Christ's sacrifice its value as redemption and reparation, as atonement and satisfaction (616).

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is the meaning of the Transfiguration?

Gospel Greek deliberately avoids the term metamorphosis in this account, an attempt to sever any "pagan" comparison. The brilliance of Jesus' face; the enveloping cloud, and Peter's suggestion of pitching tents evokes significant encounters Moses had with the Holy Presence. The simultaneous appearance of Moses and Elijah, representatives of Law and Prophecy, reinforce these anchors to the Hebrew story.

So what's it doing in the New Testament? Scholars offer three possibilities. One is that this event is the Gospel of Mark's misplaced Resurrection story. The second idea is that this story is a theological reflection of the first-generation church: a symbolic way of reconstructing what Jesus means to them. The third theory is that the Transfiguration is a private vision of Peter in which the truth about Jesus "came together" for him and shaped his understanding of the Second Coming before or even well after Easter. What's our final takeaway? Saint Paul declares that we will all be transfigured if we keep our sights trained on Christ.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-transfiguration>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT (FEBRUARY 25)

For the love of God

One of the deepest spiritual longings is to know ourselves as the beloved of God. Maya Angelou, in her memoir Wouldn't Take Nothing for My Journey Now, recalls being asked by her teacher to read a section from a book that ended with the words, "God loves me." He instructed her to say the passage again and again. Eventually it dawned on her there might be truth in those words. "I suddenly began to cry at the grandness of it all," she writes. "I knew that if God loved me, then I could do wonderful things."

READINGS: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Romans 8:31b-34; Mark 9:2-10 (26 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/022524.cfm>). "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

FAITH IN ACTION

Make a Lenten practice of repeating "God loves me," and share the Good News of God's love with others.
