This Moment in Prayer, Service and Community

Dear All: Christ's Peace!

Monday, October 19, we celebrate the Feast of Saint Isaac Jogues and the North American Martyrs, the seven French Jesuit missionaries who labored here in the 17th century. Three of them – Jogues, Goupil, and LaLande – were martyred near Albany, New York. The other four – Brebeuf, Chabanal, Daniel, and Garnier – lost their lives near Midland, Ontario. Goupil died in 1642. All the others were killed between 1646 and 1649.

Saint Isaac, who was born and raised in France, was very much at home on the water. He paddled his missionary canoe, round trip, from Montreal to Minnesota. He traversed Lake George and called it "The Lake of the Blessed Sacrament." A few years back, when my college roommates and I would swim across the lake, we frequently visited the island where Isaac reportedly rested. Saint Isaac was the first priest to set foot on Manhattan island. And even though his journals provide no justification of this conjecture, I have always figured he saw New Jersey with his own eyes. I mean, how could you sail out of New Amsterdam harbor and NOT see Monmouth County's hills?

Isaac's consuming dedication to the mission inspires me daily. I think of him as a dear friend in heaven who loves and helps the people of our Millstone mission. Until this year, I had a hard time grasping the extent to which the pandemic of his day shaped his evangelization efforts. I am starting to get it.

Sorry to go on so long, but I love this guy and trust that he intercedes plenty. Perhaps you have noticed that at (just about) every Mass, I invoke him right after petitioning Our Lady of the Way and Saint Joseph. Maybe this will be the year I journey back to his beloved ravine on the day of the feast. Enjoy it!

This Moment in Prayer

OUR "MASS BOOK" – ARRANGING MASS INTENTIONS – If you have lost a child, you get to the front of the intentions line. If you have suffered this tragedy, and would like to arrange a Mass, for your child's birthday or anniversary of death, please contact Carol in the front office next week. The Mass book will open to all parishioners on November 3, the day after All Souls' Day.

October 18, 2020

BAPTISMS – Saturday brought great happiness to our parish. GREAT blessings for the five babies baptized on Saturday and for their families. Blessings too for those to be baptized on the 24th.

FIRST COMMUNIONS – Perhaps you participated in Saturday's 4:45 livestreamed Mass? The one at which four beautiful youngsters made their First Communions, crossing the threshold from "Catholic little kids" to plain old "Catholic kids." They have been prepared beautifully and looked beautiful. May these First Communions mark the start of a long and greatly blessed relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist.

CONFESSIONS (OR CONVERSATION) – There are still two slots open for confessions tomorrow – Saturday, October 17. Email me if you want to claim one of them. Remember, you can reserve a slot even if you do not want to use it for confession. We can use the 20 minutes to discuss any spiritual or personal issue. Also, if you want to schedule confession for another time, of course we can do that.

LITURGY SCHEDULE – UPCOMING

CHANGES – I came remarkably close to thinking we had it all figured out. Then some parishioners made some helpful suggestions. For now, let's identify what will not change and what will.

WHAT IS NOT CHANGING – (i) The 9:30 Sunday Mass will not change. It is a "Seraphim/extra precautions" Mass. (ii) 8:35 Daily Mass will not change. It is standard precautions M, Tu, Th and F and extra precautions on W. (iii) Wednesday Communion Service will not change. It will stay at 10:00 am.

WHAT IS CHANGING – (i) The 11:30 outdoor Mass will be celebrated for four more weeks. It is a standard precautions Mass with unique reservations requirements. We are trying to determine if we should have 11:30 Mass indoors when the outdoor season ends. (ii) Tuesday Evening Communion Service will change. Blame it on the early sunsets. Our current best guess is that we will start having a Communion Service on Saturday mornings at 10 – starting November 7. (iii) Saturday 4:45 Mass will probably re-re-start soon. If, in addition to the 9:30 Mass (extra precautions) we are going to have one additional Mass (standard precautions), should it be on Saturday at 4:45 or Sunday at 11:30?

This Moment in Service

The pandemic has tweaked our ways of serving each other and serving our local and global communities. You have been excellent. Your ways of supporting the Hillsborough Food Bank have been particularly inspiring. There will also be some tweaking in our Advent Giving Tree and our Thanksgiving Food Collection. (see page 5)

This Moment in Community

OUR PARISH PICNICS – Once again, parish life gives us more reasons to thank God for our Knights and Columbiettes (K&C). They provided for two picnics this weekend. Attendance on Saturday was meager, but the K&C were ready for a crowd. Sunday's group was much larger. Rumor has it that many turned out to watch the croquet tournament, which was better than ever! Great thanks to our music folks, Mike DeLucia, Anthony Carter, and Chris Colaneri. Thanks to all who multiplied the fun – especially K&C.

OUR PRAYER PATH – Eight great guys transformed our Prayer Path on Saturday morning. Our thanks go to Walt Rusack, Ken Wetzel, Rick Artz, Mark Dorler, Christophe Boucher, Rich Lusardi, Phil Gentile, and Bryan DeLisi. I thought they planned to spruce it up. They transformed it. Check it out.

OUR MOBILE CHAPEL AND PULPIT – Thanks to John Yablonski, we now have a hay wagon we can use for this winter's Communion Services. Thanks to Peter Hoefele, Catherine Hoefele, John Tamburini and Rich Realbuto, the hay wagon now has a floor that will allow preaching and a soundboard.

BECCA'S FRIENDS – Thanks to the leaders of our Becca's Friends Ministry for hosting Thursday's most excellent gathering – which included BINGO and lunch. Plus, the weather angels delivered in a big way.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION – We just completed Week 1 of CCD 2020-21. Our families were able to re-connect via Zoom and get a virtual introduction to Unit 1 in the Finding God books. Many, many thanks for the tireless efforts of Sharon Sweeney, Stephanie Higgins, Michele Tuck, Mariusz Siwec, Rossana Garcia and Kristen Schiro for taking the curriculum completely apart and piecing it back together for hybrid learning! A gargantuan task undertaken with smiles all around. Also – thanks to those who led the breakout rooms in each session, and honorably mention to Manny Caravano who supplemented our Zoom education. We could NOT do it without all of you! If anyone else would be willing to assist in managing a breakout room – we provide the script – please contact Jim Jungels. You don't need to be a CCD parent to participate!

PARISH RECORDS UPDATE – Our Record Update is just about complete. Yet another gargantuan task is about to get checked off the to-do list. Dianne Mantilla, our intrepid Parish Soft maestro, has updated more than 2000 records. This effort has relied on the kindness and competence of many parishioners and staff members. Dianne, Kelly Mackiw, Gloria Lagerman and the Parish Council's Planning Committee have made invaluable contributions. Kind and cooperative parishioners have made it all possible. The total effort will give us a greatly improved ability to understand our parish and respond according to Christ's hopes.

FOGGING MINISTRY – Thanks to Tina and Tom Lochmann for pioneering our fogging efforts. Thanks too to those who have just signed up to help. Without your help, we cannot have anyone in church. If you might be willing to run the fogger, a pretty simple but mission-critical task, please email Bryan DeLisi at bdelisi@stjosephsparish.com. Special thanks to Bill Jannone for fogging during the week.

MEN'S BIBLE STUDY – I apologize for leaving you hanging. We have had a few too many moving parts to resolve this one, but resolution is here. The sessions will be on Wednesday nights from 7:30-8:45 via Zoom. Our first meeting will be on Wednesday, November 4. We will clarify the schedule during our first meeting. As with last year's scripture study, we will do six (or so) weeks in a row (except holidays), take a few weeks off, and then do another batch of weeks. We will conclude at the Pentecost. If you have already expressed an interest, I will email you to see if you can do it now that it is on Wednesday rather than Monday. Please go online and obtain a copy of "Sacra Pagina: The Gospel of Mark" written by John Donahue and Daniel Harrington. You can buy it new or used, paperback or hardcover. Makes no difference. Sorry about the delay. It will be good to undertake this adventure with you.

PARISH COUNCIL – I am more grateful than ever to our Parish Council. Tuesday night's meeting was excellent. Plans for Christmas and beyond are coming together beautifully. The reports from every functional area reminded us all that our parishioners are doing great things with and for Jesus.

FINANCE COUNCIL – This is another great gang. We meet Tuesday night.

Remember to check out the voting requirements in your area. Some of them will catch you by surprise. Do not wait until election day to start wondering about it.

If I could vote for Jesus, I would. Regrettably, he is not on the ballot. Again. So, I will vote for the folks I think are most likely to make His dreams come true. I hope you will do the same.

Thanks in advance for refraining from asking about my preferences and for understanding why I refrain from asking about yours. My job is to keep asking you the Jesus questions. I appreciate fully that people of good faith can come to different conclusions. May God stir your hearts and minds to make inspired choices.

God bless each of you. And if you cannot find me on Monday, it means I have headed for the hills of New York State to pray in the place where my best canonized friend lived and died for the mission.

Fr Hank
