STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Fridays in Lent in Church

9:05 AM, immediately after Daily Mass

And at 7:00 PM

The Stations are a devotion intended to help us follow Jesus on his way to Calvary. By accompanying him on the Way of the Cross, we see ourselves mirrored in him, gain his courageous patience, & learn to trust God who is with us no matter what we have to go through. Please join us in this ancient prayer of the Church

MARK YOUR CALENDAR:

PARISH LENTEN PENANCE SERVICE

Tuesday, February 28, at 7:00 PM

February 19, 2023

Ash Wednesday
— Lent Begins

Dear All, Christ's peace!

Relief for the Earthquake Victims – This week's donations (and last week's) to the Poor Box will help the earthquake victims in Turkey and Syria. We have checked out a few options and, as of this writing, we think that the Jesuit Refugee Services provide our best way to help. Let me know if you have other suggestions.

International Relief Ministry? – Our parish responds in remarkable ways to international disasters. Should we form a ministry that identifies disasters, clarifies the best ways to help, and informs the parish about the work? Email me if you think this might be a good idea and you might be willing to join.

There will be more news about joining ministries and community events. God bless your discernment. And maybe think of praying "Lord Jesus Christ, living Son of the living God, please help me to know what You want, to want what You want, and to do what You want this Lent." How good would it be for you to be able to look back and say "I started that (or quit that) in Lent, 2023?"

Wednesday Communion Service – 10:00 am in the Parking Lot – The Wednesday morning service is going strong. Join us if you can for the 20-minute Communion Service. Great stuff.

Reading the Sunday Readings – Remember, if reading the readings during Mass helps you to absorb them, read away! The new hymnals provide the readings, and the lector will announce where to find them.

HOME – Housing Outreach Multifaith Empowerment – Can you join the effort to help homeless families at Hillsborough Reformed Church? We need all sorts of helpers for this shared project on the weekend of March 12-19. Questions? Email Jeanine at Jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com.

Caregivers – Might you need a little community support in your effort to provide special care for needy loved ones or for the folks you serve in your professional work? Email mtc@sjmillstone.com

Summer Appalachia Work Camp – The next mission trip is June 10-17, 2023. This year we will be joined by folks from MMOG. Questions? Email Jeanine at jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com. You can also watch the video about last year's trip at <https://sjmillstone.com/appalachia-mission>

I send this with great thanks and great blessings.

LITTLE BLACK LENTEN BOOKS

:Back by popular demand and as good as ever!

The Little Black Books will be in baskets in the Gathering Space this weekend.

- PLEASE take one per household for now – even if that means you must share!
- ALSO – if you take Communion to a home-bound parishioner, please take one for that person as well. With any luck, we will be able to reconsider the quotas next week.

Calling All Moms with Young Children.

M.O.M.S

Join the "The M.O.M.S. Squad."

(M.O.M.S. = Moms Offering Moms Support).

The squad is a new group starting at our parish. A group of moms of school-aged children (and younger) will come together to build connections and offer each other support while exploring Catholic studies. Our time together will be guided by an "ENDOW" study. (ENDOW = Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women). Don't worry, NO HOMEWORK. We will hold the meetings on Wednesdays from 9:30 to 11:00 am in the Hospitality Room, starting March 15.

Children are welcome. Stay tuned for more information about whom to contact, learn more, and join up!

FUN TEA PARTY WITH ALICE OF WONDERLAND

YOUNG FAMILIES AND NEW PARENTS

Save the date: Saturday, April 1 at 11:00 AM.

Bring yourself and your kids and hear Alice tell her story and how the 1850 tale went on to become a Disney movie. Stay tuned for details.

2023 Bishop's Annual Appeal

Renewed and Sent on Mission by the Eucharist
Week 4

By now you have received a letter from Bishop Checchio inviting your participation in the 2023 Bishop's Annual Appeal. The diocesan ministries supported by the Appeal directly impact many of the parishioners here in St. Joseph Parish. Your gift provides formation opportunities for our catechists, youth and young adults. In the coming days, you will be receiving a letter from our pastor, Fr. Hank, encouraging your participation. If you have yet to make your gift, please prayerfully consider doing so today by either returning your pledge card in the mail or going to the secure website:

<https://diometuchen.org/BAA>.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

LENT

LENTEN OBLIGATIONS

So that the Church of Metuchen may be spiritually one in a common observance of Lent, the following days of fast and abstinence are to be observed by all Catholics of the Diocese who enjoy the blessings of good health:

1. The days of fast and abstinence are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

2. All other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.

3. From the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday until the celebration of the Easter Vigil on the evening of Holy Saturday, the Easter fast should be observed so that, with uplifted and welcoming hearts, we may be ready to celebrate the joys of the Resurrection. This ancient tradition, intimately connected with the Rites of Holy Week and the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is encouraged, especially in those places baptizing catechumens at the Easter Vigil.

The obligation to fast applies only to Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. To fast in the Catholic tradition means to limit oneself to one full meal during the day so as to experience hunger.

The obligation of abstinence affects all Catholics who have reached the age of 14. Abstinence in the Catholic tradition means to abstain from meat.

The obligation of fast and abstinence, as a whole, is a serious obligation. While failure to observe any penitential day in itself may not be considered serious, the failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of them without good cause, would be considered a grave matter. Those unable to abstain for a valid reason on any given Friday of Lent are asked to perform some other penitential act, or to abstain on another day.

Kindness and care, from beginning to end

Sometimes you have to do things for yourself. Mathilda Beasley (1833-1903), of Creole and Native American parents, founded a Franciscan community of color in Savannah with little help from normal church channels. Her sisters cared for orphaned black children, continuing the work until things ran out: money, housing, and the health of Mother Beasley. Though the community was suppressed, Mother Beasley was the third founder of an order of black sisters in the United States, after Elizabeth Lange and Henriette Delille. God measures our efforts, not our success.

SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18; 1 Corinthians 3:16-23; Matthew 5:38-48 (79). "For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God."

Monday, Feb 20, 2023

Either part of the problem, or . . .

Imagine being a lifelong Catholic—yet being refused admittance to a Catholic school. Or being asked to move to the back of the church at Mass because of your race. Professor Thomas Wyatt Turner (1877-1978) experienced plenty of discrimination, which is why he helped found the NAACP in 1909 as well as the Federated Colored Catholics in 1924. The latter group pledged their services to the church "for whatever good they were able to effect in the solution of the problems facing the group in church and country." On this World Day of Social Justice, be part of the solution.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 1:1-10; Mark 9:14-29 (341). "Why could we not drive the spirit out?" [Jesus] said to them, 'This kind can only come out through prayer.'"

Tuesday, Feb 21, 2023

Climb to holiness

Dante Alighieri, writing The Divine Comedy, paid Peter Damian the great honor of placing him in one of the highest circles of Paradise. In fact, Peter is the first of two important monastic figures to greet Dante in "seventh heaven," the other being Saint Benedict of Nursia. Both represent this heavenly level: spiritual contemplatives who've lived a life of temperance and prayer. Dante has Peter and Benedict climbing up and down a golden ladder, reminiscent of the "Ladder of Humility" (12 steps) described in the Benedictine Rule and the "Ladder of Divine Ascent" (30 steps) written by monastic Saint John Climacus. If you need to build a Lenten practice, step up to the task tomorrow.

MEMORIAL OF PETER DAMIAN, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 2:1-11; Mark 9:30-37 (342). "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

Wednesday, Feb 22, 2023

Out of the ashes

Happy Ash Wednesday! Yes, it can be a cause for celebration. Best known as the first day of Lent, this day remains sacred to Catholic communities in the West as a day of solemnity following the Carnival season, capped off yesterday with Mardi Gras ("Fat Tuesday"). Though most often associated with revelry and excess, the season just completed is also a holy one. Carnival is full of Catholic symbolism and festive acknowledgement of God and creation, in keeping with the church year and its marking of spiritual times and seasons. Now, as we enter a period of fasting and abstinence, let's remember to continue seeking God's goodness in the rich traditions of the faith. Don't forget to stop by church for ashes today!

ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 2:12-18; 2 Corinthians 5:20—6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (219). "For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him."

Thursday, Feb 23, 2023

Emulate those who stood firm

Polycarp was a bishop, and his death the church's first recorded martyrdom. He was born in 69, just a few years after Peter and Paul were executed, and Roman authorities burned him to death after what one account calls a "witty conversation" between Polycarp and Statius Quadratus, Roman proconsul. Polycarp became one of what would turn out to be a flood of Christians who have been put to death, and continue to be so, for not renouncing their faith. Sometimes "not renouncing" means publicly living Christian ethics against pressure; sometimes it means stating one's belief in words. Strive to be a courageous witness for faith, as those who came before us have been.

MEMORIAL OF POLYCARP, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Luke 9:22-25 (220). "What profit is there for one to gain the whole world yet lose or forfeit himself?"

Friday, Feb 24, 2023

Fast approaching

The practice of fasting during Lent finds its genesis in our Lord's journey into the desert where he fasted and prayed for 40 days and nights in preparation to begin his public ministry (Matthew 4:1-2; Luke 4:1-3). We observe the 40 days of Lent in imitation of Christ's time in the desert. We walk into the desert with Christ and fast so as to have the strength to do good and avoid evil, with the help of God's grace. We strive to atone for our sins and purify our lives in preparation for the celebration of Christ's glorious rising from the tomb.

FRIDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:1-9a; Matthew 9:14-15 (221). "This, rather, is the fasting that I wish: . . . Clothing the naked when you see them, and not turning your back on your own."

Saturday, Feb 25, 2023

What's on your bookshelf?

It is often said that Lent is a time to take spiritual inventory and do a "spring cleanup" as we renew our baptismal promises. The conjunction of Lent with Black History Month and Catholic Press Month affords us an unprecedented opportunity to take spiritual inventory of our bookshelves, too! What books do we have from the black Catholic community that can enrich us, expand our spiritual horizons, and even challenge us? This Lent, consider picking up Uncommon Faithfulness: The Black Catholic Experience (2009) or Black Catholic Studies Reader: History and Theology (2021). Make one of these books or a similar one part of your Lenten renewal.

SATURDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:9b-14; Luke 5:27-32 (222). "Then the LORD will guide you always and give you plenty even on the parched land."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
