READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Isaiah 53:10-11 Hebrews 4:14-16
Mark 10:35-45

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

To what was Jesus referring when he spoke of a camel passing through the eye of a needle? Was it the small door in the wall surrounding Jerusalem known as the "eye of the needle" not large enough for a camel? Or did a translator mistake the word "rope" for "eye" because they were so similar, and Jesus meant a thick piece of rope couldn't fit through the eye of a needle? And then, is it possible Jesus was speaking in hyperbole to make a point, like we might describe a heavy rainstorm as "raining cats and dogs?" As Catholics we read the Scriptures contextually. What is the meaning and what is the intention? This gospel read in its entirety is pretty clear. - Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's Peace!

This Moment in Prayer

SCRIPTURE QUIZ- THIS WEEK'S QUESTIONS:

True or False: "All other things being equal, a person who has been divorced, and not remarried outside the church, can receive Communion." _____

True or False: An annulment is the church's way of dissolving a valid marriage. _____

LAST WEEK'S ANSWERS:

Moses' main deputy, the one who asked about Medad and Eldad, is Joshua.

In last Sunday's gospel, Jesus refers several times to a place where we do not want to end up in the next life. The name of that place is Gehenna.

CONFESSIONS THIS WEEK – Tomorrow will be business as usual. No need for an appointment for Confession between 10 and 11. Just drive up. If you want to come between 11 and 12, email me for an appointment.

SLIGHT ADJUSTMENT IN THE SEATING SET UP (4:45 AND 9:30) – Section 6 will now be an Open Seating Section. The other sections are as they were. Standard Precautions in 2 and 5. Enhanced precautions in 3 and 4. Open seating in 1 and 7. Thanks for your continued cooperation. We MIGHT need to convert section 3 from Enhanced Precautions to Standard Precautions.

UPCOMING HOMILIES – From October 10, through the Sunday before Christ the King, November 14, the homilies will focus on the second reading, the passages from Hebrews that refer to Jesus as our "high priest." It promises to be a new homiletic experience for all of us.

PRAYING AT OFF HOURS – If you want to make a visit to the church or chapel during business hours, just come to the main door of the Parish Hall. Ring the bell and someone will open the door for you to make your visit.

BIBLE STUDIES – Both the women's groups and the men's group got off to great starts this week. It's not too late to join. Email Suzanne to connect with the women's group. Email Father Hank for the men's group.

POST-TENT 11:30 – We continue to try to figure out where and how to have the 11:30 Mass after the tent comes down. Thanks to all who joined in last week's survey – even the horn-blowers and the big babies

This Moment in Service

FLOOD RELIEF – Your remarkable generosity continues to change lives for the better. Six families have already been helped – mostly with funding for furnaces, hot water heaters, and emergency repairs.

The Review Committee has approved help for 14 more families. Those checks will go out today.

Nine more families have received home visits and their requests will be reviewed on Monday.

Six families will receive home visits next week.

We are still learning more about the help that SHIP and Feeding Hands require.

ADVENT GIVING TREE – This year's Giving Tree launches Friday, October 15 when the parish website will provide instructions for how to give. Gift cards are due back by November 14..

Gifts for Appalachia – As we have in recent years, we will once again provide actual gifts to the children served by our area's Appalachia Ministry. You will find gift tags on the trees in the Gathering Space the weekend of November 6 and 7. The gifts for Appalachia will be due back by November 28.

This Moment in Community

LITURGICAL MINISTERS' SIGN-IN – As we make our way through this stage of the pandemic's liturgical tweaks, we are going back to a sign-in sheet for ministers at the 4:45 and the 9:30. Thanks for helping.

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES REBOOTS – The lectors are now up and running in a more traditional way. Other ministries will soon make a similar move. Next up will be Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers.

THE "SAINT JOE'S HELPERS GUILD" – Great thanks to the dozens who signed up. You will soon be receiving an email from me just to confirm your willingness to help. Many hands make light work!

COLLABORATIVE DIVORCE – Do you know someone who is going through a divorce? Let them know about "Collaborative Divorce," a tried-and-true program that keeps proceedings on the high road. Contact Fr. Hank.

BUILDINGS & GROUNDS (B&G) MAJOR PROJECTS – At this month's meeting, B&G decided this year's major projects will be replacement of the church roof and replacement of two AC units. Those major projects, along with a few smaller ones, will cost about $150,000. We have the money in the B&G account. Our next big project will be milling and repaving the parking lot.

O HOLY NIGHTS – Given the success of last year's Sunday nights in Advent, we will give it another go this year. Please mark your calendars for November 28 and December 5, 12, and 19. Be on the lookout in the coming weeks for the announcement to reserve your memorial Christmas tree – we'll keep the cost the same as last year ($100).

PARISH COUNCIL PRIORITIES – At last month's meeting, members of the Parish Council agreed to establish three priorities for the upcoming year: getting people back to Mass, enhancing programs for young families, and expanding and enriching our offerings for families when a family member has died.

VIRTUS TRAINING – Pam and Bob will be offering a Virtus training session on Wednesday evening.

ANNUAL VETERANS CELEBRATION – Sunday, November 14. Stay tuned for details.

With continued thanks and all best blessings.

Father Hank

CHAMPIONS FOR CATHOLIC CHARITIES VIRTUAL GALA & 50/50 RAFFLE

Thursday, October 28 ~ 7:00 PM

The COVID-19 pandemic has increased the number of people seeking assistance and no one is ever turned away. The ministry of Catholic Charities has remained uninterrupted throughout these unprecedented times providing basic necessities of food, clothing and housing for those hit hardest by the economic downturn. In addition, curbside visits and tele-health services are now available for those in need of counseling or struggling with addictions. Programs for youth, affordable childcare, maternity and immigration services continue to serve thousands of men, women and children each day.

By entering our Champion 50/50 Raffle, you are helping our neighbors in need and you just may win one of the two grand prizes. The prize for our last year's raffle was $30,614 each for two lucky winners. With your participation, we are hoping for even greater success this year. Tickets are $100 each and can be purchased by downloading a raffle form at www.diometuchen.org/champions and mailing it in with your payment. Thank you and good luck!

How Jews and Christians
Read the Same Texts Differently

Although Jews and Christians share common books—the Jewish Tanakh and the Christian Old Testament—we are not quite reading the same texts, for we have differences in translation, punctuation, definitions, theology, emphasis and even canonical order. What prompts these differences, how can we learn to see through each other's lenses, and what might such new vision suggest about Jewish and Christian identity? Speaker will be on Zoom and we will gather in Mercy Hall. "AJ" is Rabbi Stanley M. Kessler Distinguished Professor of New Testament and Jewish Studies at Hartford Seminary and University Professor of New Testament and Jewish Studies Emerita as well as Mary Jane Werthan Professor of Jewish Studies Emerita at Vanderbilt.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord

More than three-quarters of those suffering from mental illness worldwide have no access to the care that could restore them to healthy relationships and productive lives. The World Federation for Mental Health therefore dedicates this Mental Health Day to the theme "Mental Health in an Unequal World." Factors like race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, and economic status complicate the path to adequate support. Pray the Rosary's Mysteries of Light today that clarity be given to those who struggle with mental health issues, and the societies that devalue them.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 7:1-11; Hebrews 4:12-13; Mark 10:17-30 (143). "I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN XXIII, POPE

He saw thee more clearly

The humble Pope John XXIII disliked the pomp and attention that came with his role, and he insisted on being called simply "the pope." Nearly 60 years since his pontificate, he is remembered in Italy as il papa buono, "the good pope." In the short time he was pope—less than five years before he died of cancer in 1963—he changed the Catholic Church like few others by convening the Second Vatican Council. On his deathbed, he said: "It is not that the gospel has changed; it is that we have begun to understand it better." We can always use the intercession of "the good pope" as we keep seeking to understand better what the gospel means in our changing times.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 1:1-7; Luke 11:29-32 (467). "Just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will the Son of Man be to this generation."

Our pillar of strength

Today is the feast day of Virgin Maria del Pilar, a Spanish devotion commemorating the first official Marian apparition of the Catholic Church. According to tradition, Mary first appeared—while still alive—to the apostle James in the year 40, as he preached the gospel to the people of Spain. Saint James, despondent over his progress, prayed for reassurance, and Our Lady appeared to him in a supernatural manner, standing upon a pillar held aloft by angels. Because October is the month of the Rosary, honor Maria with the beautiful Hail Holy Queen prayer that's part of that devotion.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 1:16-25; Luke 11:37-41 (468). "I am not ashamed of the Gospel."

God to humanity: Can't buy my love

From at least the time of the Pharisees, important people in the eyes of the world often assumed they had the inside track on a pleasant afterlife. Pope Francis begged to differ in an Advent season homily several years back. At the Last Judgment, Francis said, Jesus will not say, "You, come with me because you have given so much money to the church. You are a benefactor of the church. Come, come to Heaven." No. You can't buy your way into Heaven. And He won't say: 'You are very important, you have studied so much and earned so many honors, come into Heaven.'

No. Awards do not open the gate of Heaven," Francis said. "What will Jesus tell us to open up the gates of Heaven? 'I was hungry, and you gave Me to eat. I was homeless, and you gave Me shelter. I was sick, and you came to see Me. I was in prison, and you came to visit Me.' Jesus is humility," Francis said. Close your purse or wallet, and open your heart!

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 2:1-11; Luke 11:42-46 (469). "You pay tithes of mint and of rue and of every garden herb, but you pay no attention to judgment and to love for God."

MEMORIAL OF CALLISTUS I, POPE, MARTYR

Patron saint of second (or more) chances

Saint Callistus I is inspiration to anyone who has made major errors in life. Callistus seriously messed up, not once but twice. Born into slavery, his master put him in charge of a bank that Callistus criminally mismanaged. After a while in prison, he was freed to earn back the money he owed. Instead, he was arrested for brawling in a synagogue. Strike two. Nonetheless, Callistus reformed himself, served the early church as a cemetery manager, and was eventually elected pope! Consider saying a prayer of thanks for a church that offers redemption (even the papacy) to people who have fallen hard.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 3:21-30; Luke 11:47-54 (470). "Woe to you, scholars of the law! You have taken away the key of knowledge."

MEMORIAL OF TERESA OF JESUS, VIRGIN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Don't be afraid of the dark

The dark night of the soul, a term coined by Spanish mystic Saint John of the Cross, describes a period on the spiritual journey when one feels distant from God and suffers physical and emotional pain. Saint Teresa of Ávila, a close friend of John's, actually felt like she was going mad as she pursued the contemplative life. But then, in 1567, while gazing at a statue of Jesus, she felt an ecstasy beyond description as she reached "union with God." Teresa wrote much about her interior life, and she encouraged others to experience the "great gifts that come through abandoning everything to God and dying to oneself." Pray for the patience and humility to stay the spiritual course.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 4:1-8; Luke 12:1-7 (471). "Therefore, whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light."

I was hungry

World Food Day was established in 1979 by the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization and is celebrated annually on this date in 150 countries. The theme for this year's celebration is, "Safe food now for a healthy tomorrow." The World Food Program (WFP) is the food-assistance branch of the organization. As of 2019, the WFP has served 97 million people in 88 countries, and it was awarded the 2020 Nobel Peace Prize for its efforts to combat hunger and contribute to peace in conflict areas. Take a moment today to thank God for the food you eat and the people who produce it, and to support your local World Food Day celebration.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 4:13, 16-18; Luke 12:8-12 (472). "I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before others the Son of Man will acknowledge before the angels of God."
