READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

- 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23
1 Corinthians 15:45-49
Luke 6: 27-38

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel- Luke 6:17, 20-26

The Beatitudes appear twice in the New Testament: in Luke's Gospel today and in Matthew 5:1-10. Like much of the content of the Gospels, the stories are the same but the details often differ. Because Matthew's readers were mostly Jewish, he included references to their Hebrew Scriptures with which they were familiar. For this reason, he portrays Jesus on a hill when he preaches about the Beatitudes just as Moses was on Mount Sinai when he received the Ten Commandments from God (Exodus 34:1-5). Luke's Gospel was written later than Matthew and by then his audience was primarily Gentile converts who were not familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures, so he does not make the same comparison to Moses that Matthew does. Instead, Jesus stands on "a stretch of level ground" when he preaches the Beatitudes to the crowd.

Dear All – Christ's peace!

This Week in Prayer

Memorial Mass for Emily Murillo – God bless all who came out, despite the weather, all who served in their ministries, and all who wanted to be there but were snowed in.. I hope you will take a quiet, slow moment to soak up the message from Erin, Emily's mom:

The Memorial Mass that Saint Joe's blessed us with was perfect and exactly what I needed to feel like Emily is finally 'laid to rest'... I have never been so welcomed by people who don't know me. I could not be any more grateful for the very evident effort people put into every aspect... truly I am honored that you all thought that highly of Emmy and our family. Thank you for blessing us with this gift of peace for my girl and for us as well. I am eternally grateful.

Those who have not yet heard Erin's powerful address can still find it through our YouTube link.

Calling All Married Couples Who Are Experiencing a Rough Patch – If the going is pretty rough these days, try "Retrouvaille." The program is famous for getting troubled relationships back on track. There is a program nearby on the last weekend of February. If money is tight, St. Joe's can help fund your weekend. For more information, email me or email the program facilitator at 3024@helpourmarriage.org. (see page 4 for more info).

Facilitators for Friday Night Stations in Lent – Despite my energetic protests, Peggy and Richard Fullam will soon be moving to the next county. We will miss them for 101 reasons, including their dedicated leadership of the Friday night Stations of the Cross during Lent. Let me know if you might take up their torch.

This Week in Service

This Week's Poor Box – Contributions to the Poor Box this week will help support the St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry.

This Week in Community

Pasta Night – a Remarkable Triumph! – Because of the ice and snow, the Knights had to ditch the idea of serving the meatballs on roller skates and skateboards. Other than that glitch, everything about Friday's pasta take-out night was a smash hit. They served 475 take-out meals with amazing efficiency and good charm. The final meatball count reached 1,150 and the final pasta count was 115 pounds. In addition to the regular orders, meals went for 45 clients of SHIP (given in memory of

February 13, 2022

Emily Murillo), 40 meals went to homebound parishioners, and another 25 are set aside for our next in-person gathering of Becca's Friends. Special thanks to Weis Markets for the discount on the ingredients and all best blessings for the babies of tomorrow who will benefit from the Ultrasound equipment that the evening's proceeds will help to purchase for the local pregnancy help centers. God bless everyone who made it a super night, and God bless our Knights. .

The Bishop's Appeal – You will soon be hearing more. The “in-pew collection” will be in late March.

Memorial Plaques for the Ginkgo Trees – Thanks to all who sponsored one of the ginkgo trees that were planted, last spring, between the parking lot and the solar panels. The memorial plaques for those trees arrived several weeks ago and they are beautiful. The plaques will be installed as soon as the ground thaws.

Mark Your Calendars – Parish Cleanup Day – Now that February has landed, we can say, “Spring begins next month.” Oh, what a feeling. Thoughts of spring turn us to thoughts of spring cleanup, right? Please mark your calendars for Saturday, April 23 with Saturday, April 30 for a rain date. There is a job for everyone.

Parish Reports – The annual summary of our preceding fiscal year will be sent via Flocknote in the next week or so. This year, for the first time, we will also provide a link to the annual “Parish Pastoral Profile” that we provide the diocese every year.

With all best blessings

Father Hank

2022 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Celebrating 40 Years—

Continuing to Fan the Flame of Faith into Service

The shelters operated by Catholic Charities remained fully staffed during the Covid-19 pandemic and provided lodging, meals, crisis counseling and case management services to the residents who would otherwise be homeless. This is just one example of the more than 100 programs in 20 sites throughout Middlesex, Somerset, Hunterdon and Warren counties reaching out with Works of Mercy to those struggling with the hardships of life. Your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal helps to ensure that no one is left homeless, hungry, or without emotional support in these extremely difficult times.

SCRIPTURE SHARING

You are invited to share scripture with a small group of people on Monday mornings from 11-11:30 AM. We reflect and share on the Gospel of that day. It is an investment of only one-half hour of your time, and we can assure you that the fruits of that one-half hour will be abundant.

Make a commitment for just one Monday, and if you like it, come back the next Monday. Start your week with prayer, community, and hope. We look forward to sharing this time with you! Bring your bible with you!

Learn more about how to join this meeting by visiting:

DRIVERS NEEDED

Catholic School Transportation

A shortage of bus drivers and the pandemic have combined to create a limit on the number of students on buses, due to the distance required for student seating. The capacity for buses has been cut by almost 50%, thus creating a situation by which private contractors can no longer transport many nonpublic school students for the $1,000 per-pupil amount because of the fewer number of students on a route. Please consider serving our Catholic school students by getting your CDL.

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Courage under fire

They called him the "Scourge of Apartheid" and "Guardian of the Light." Was he a Marvel superhero? Would you believe an archbishop? An Oblate of Mary Immaculate, Denis Hurley of Durban (1915-2004) opposed the racist regime of South Africa for 50 years, calling it "blasphemy" and "intrinsically evil" as first the world's youngest bishop and later as the youngest archbishop. Hurley joined Anglican Archbishop Desmond Tutu and three others on the South African government's "most wanted" list. Standing up for the truth may put us on a hit list. It also makes us blessed in God's eyes.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 17:5-8; 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20; Luke 6:17, 20-26 (78). "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, . . . on account of the Son of Man."

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL, MONK, AND METHODIUS, BISHOP

Courting faith

Today may be the feast day of Saint Valentine, but Saints Cyril and Methodius get higher billing by the church with a memorial today. These brothers who were missionaries shared the love of Christ, not by penning endearing notes to loved ones, but by translating the Bible into a local language. In fact, they invented an alphabet so they could do it! The best way to reach people is to meet them where they are. If someone is in a different place on their spiritual journey, do you insist they "catch up" to you? Or do you run up to greet them and speak of God's love in terms they understand? Maybe you'll end up walking arm in arm in the same direction.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 1:1-11; Mark 8:11-13 (335). "The Pharisees came forward and began to argue with Jesus, seeking from him a sign from heaven to test him."

Tuesday, Feb 15, 2022

Faith and facts fit together

Galileo, father of the scientific method, was born on this day in 1564. Famously, the Catholic Inquisition condemned him for insisting the Earth revolved around the sun—an unpopular position made twice as controversial for seeming to defy the pope. Ever since, Galileo remains the poster child for "faith versus reason," which feeds the unjustified stereotype that Catholicism is "anti-science." It's not. In fact, practicing Catholics, including priests and nuns, are found among notable scientists, past and present. And when Pope John Paul II issued an official apology in 1992, it came through the Pontifical Academy of Science. Time to unite spirit and intellect to help us understand the glories and challenges God's creation presents to us.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 1:12-18; Mark 8:14-21 (336). "All good giving and every perfect gift is from above."

Wednesday, Feb 16, 2022

"Holy Spirit, come"

The Catholic Charismatic Renewal has helped reinvigorate the faith and refreshed the experience of worship for diverse pockets of churchgoers. Beginning with the 1967 Duquesne Weekend—a meeting in Pittsburgh at an Episcopalian prayer service, where a group of Catholics encountered the "charismatic gifts" of speaking in tongues, miraculous healing, and other supernatural occurrences—Catholics across the country and eventually around the world began to experience a similar sense of renewal and ecumenical connection. Though the gifts of the Spirit are available to all, not everyone will experience them in the same way. What is essential is to be open to the Holy Spirit at all times.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 1:19-27; Mark 8:22-26 (337). "He laid hands on the man's eyes a second time and he saw clearly."

Thursday, Feb 17, 2022

MEMORIAL OF THE SEVEN HOLY FOUNDERS OF THE SERVITE ORDER, RELIGIOUS

God calls us each by name

Today the church honors the seven men who founded the Servite religious order in Italy nearly 800 years ago. The Servites have branches for every type of Catholic vocation: laity, priests, brothers, contemplative nuns, and active (apostolic) sisters. This international religious institute is nearly 800 years old, with rich traditions of prayer and service. If you are single and seeking your path, have you considered life as a consecrated brother, sister, or priest? VocationMatch.com is a good place to begin your exploration.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 2:1-9; Mark 8:27-33 (338). "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, 'You are the Christ.'"

Friday, Feb 18, 2022

Cross-culture conflicts

The concept of "taking up one's cross" has never been an easy one to understand. It does not mean to suffer in silence and passively accept our fate. When we "take up our cross," we signal our willingness to suffer for the sake of good, to give witness to what is right, to announce charity where there is greed, love where there is hate, and peace where there is war. Blessed Titus Brandsma, a Carmelite priest who was martyred in Dachau after speaking out against Nazism, wrote, "They who want to win the world for Christ must have the courage to come into conflict with it."

TODAY'S READINGS: James 2:14-24, 26; Mark 8:34—9:1 (339).

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

Saturday, Feb 19, 2022

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Let your prayer shine

The Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary traditionally contained three sets of mysteries—the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious—each set reflecting on five events in the life of Jesus and Mary. In 2002 Pope Saint John Paul II introduced a fourth set, the Luminous Mysteries, which included the Baptism of the Lord, the Wedding at Cana, the Proclamation of the Kingdom, the Transfiguration, and the Institution of the Eucharist. Each of these additional mysteries reveals a facet of the identity of the Lord. Saint Irenaeus wrote of the Transfiguration: "The glory of God is a live human being and a truly human life is the vision of God." Take time to know Jesus better by praying the Luminous Mysteries.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 3:1-10; Mark 9:2-13 (340). "And he was transfigured before them."
