READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Jeremiah 17:5-8 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20
Luke 6: 17, 20-26

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel- Luke 5:1-11

Today's Gospel contains two important "firsts" for Luke. The narrative begins on the banks of the Lake of Gennesaret where a crowd of people are listening to Jesus speak. For the very first time in his Gospel Luke uses the phrase "word of God" to describe the preaching of Jesus (v.1). Later, after Jesus told the fishermen to drop their nets again and so many fish were caught that the boat was in danger of sinking, Simon Peter falls to his knees and says, "Depart from me, Lord, I am a sinful man." He is the first person in Luke's Gospel to address Jesus as "Lord" (v.8). Note that previous to the catching of the fish Peter called Jesus "Master" (v.5).

Dear All – Christ's peace!

A time for every purpose under heaven. Inspired days come in so many varieties. A time for every purpose under heaven.

This Week in Prayer

Calling All Married Couples Who Are Experiencing a Rough Patch – Remember there is ZERO shame in encountering a rough patch. Welcome to the human race! But if you and your spouse find yourself in a particularly tough spot, consider the "Retrouvaille" program. People swear by it. The next program is in Somerset, February 25-27. The program is always run by people who have been through it. For more information, pick up a flyer in the Gathering Space, or email 3024@helpourmarriage.org Also, do not let finances keep you out of the program. Your parish will fund your participation and will, if needed, help you with babysitters or whatever you need. If your marriage needs help, get the help your marriage needs.

Communion for People with Mobility Issues – When in doubt please stay in your seat. Please let the usher know, as you enter the church, that you want Communion brought to you. Then, please stand or raise your hand to let me and the ministers know you want Communion brought to you. At every Mass, we have traveling Eucharistic Ministers who are there to bring Communion to you. Communion will also be brought to all who sit in section four at the 4:45, 9:30, and 11:30.

This Week in Service

Food Pantry Ministry – Our first Food Pantry distribution day was a huge success! We are most grateful for the many who turned out to serve at the Saint Vincent DePaul Food Pantry last Saturday. Our volunteers brought food and kindness to those who need it most. To learn more, email Jeanine Cavanagh at jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com. You can also learn more by clicking on Food Bank Ministry — St. Joseph Church (sjmillstone.com). Also, those who managed pre-pandemic donations of food, stay tuned.

Our Parish Respect Life Ministry – Our parish's Respect Life Ministry devotes itself to making life better for our most vulnerable brothers and sisters — unborn people, elderly people, people in poor health, and all people who dwell on the margins. Members of the ministry encourage all to respect life from conception to natural death and pray and work to bring about meaningful change. One of the ministry's most recent concerns arises from the new legislation in New Jersey that allows abortion up to the moment of delivery. If you would like to learn more about the ministry, email Carl Panzera at carl.panzera@gmail.com

February 6, 2022

Hillsborough Food Bank – You continue to do an inspiring job helping our local food banks. This week's delivery to the Hillsborough Food Bank was particularly impressive. Thanks to all the regulars, thanks to the occasional givers, and thanks to Paul and Patty Toste who deliver the food from here to there.

This Week in Community

Spaghetti Dinner – Your orders broke the records! This year's tally has exceeded the highly coveted thousand-meatball mark. Big blessings for our Knights and for all who have managed the orders and cooked the food. Special thanks to Monica McDevitt for processing your orders, to Bob Ferretti and Paulette Matis for counting the meatball requests, and to our Knights for their wonderful effort.

Contribution Letters – Contribution letters have been sent to everyone who donated $100 or more. If you still have not received your letter, please email Monica McDevitt in our Business Office mmcdevitt@stjosephsparish.com

Announcing All Babies – We will soon be sharing the news of the births of children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren of parishioners. Stay tuned for more information.

With great gratitude, best blessings, and very warm wishes for all of you,

Father Hank

2022 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Celebrating 40 Years—

Continuing to Fan the Flame of Faith into Service

Please watch your mailbox for a letter from Bishop Checchio coming to you this week announcing the 2022 Bishop's Annual Appeal. Our parish can share in a successful Appeal by earning a rebate of 50% of the amount collected over goal.

Through your support of the Bishop's Annual Appeal, you help those in our diocese whose needs are the greatest—the poor, the homeless, and those struggling with illness or grief. Among other needed pastoral ministries, your gift also supports the formation of seminarians and enhances the work of the Vicariate for Evangelization and Communication. The many pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Metuchen would not be possible without a generous contribution from every household. Please be as generous as your means allow.

IN GOD'S IMAGE

In God's Image, the Catholic Faith Sharing Group for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people at Church of the Sacred Heart, South Plainfield, meets the 2nd Wednesday of every month at 7:00PM. Our next meeting is February 9 and will be both in person and online. Please email for more information. The group is open to LGBTQ adults, 18 and over, and their families. All are welcome for faith sharing, prayer, conversation and support. For more information, contact Fr John at 908 756 0633, ext 125 or the group may be reached by contacting 908 822 5895 or by email-ingsacredheartigi@gmail.com.

DRIVERS NEEDED

Catholic School Transportation

A shortage of bus drivers and the pandemic have combined to create a limit on the number of students on buses, due to the distance required for student seating. The capacity for buses has been cut by almost 50%, thus creating a situation by which private contractors can no longer transport many nonpublic school students for the $1,000 per-pupil amount because of the fewer number of students on a route. Please consider serving our Catholic school students by getting your CDL.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dreams for my family

Today is the National Day of Prayer for the African American Family. It recalls Pope Francis' encouragement of a family feeling among us all: "We need a community that supports and helps us, in which we can help one another to keep looking ahead. How important it is to dream together . . . Let us dream, then, as a single human family, as fellow travelers sharing the same flesh" (Fratelli Tutti, 8). Pray for unity in families, society, and church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11; Luke 5:1-11 (75). "I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you . . . and in which you also stand."

Monday, Feb 07, 2022

And you visited me

Most of us probably thought (and hoped and prayed) the pandemic would be over by now, but COVID-19 is sticking around in 2022. As weary as we all are of it, we need each other as much as ever for support. Look no further than the corporal and spiritual works of mercy for guidance on helping others in ways that are safe and particularly useful right now. Visit the sick—if not literally, by grocery shopping or cooking for someone ill, or by reaching out to exhausted healthcare workers you know. Need tips on the other works specific to our times? Visit the Catholic bishops' resource page, "The Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy During the COVID-19 Pandemic."

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 8:1-7, 9-13; Mark 6:53-56 (329). "They scurried about the surrounding country and began to bring in the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was."

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPHINE BAKHITA

Time to stop traffic

Each year, the International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking falls on this day—the feast day of Saint Josephine Bakhita, F.D.C.C. In 1877, while still a young girl, Bakhita was kidnapped from her Sudanese village and sold—many times over—as a slave. She was brutalized for 12 years, her body a bundle of scars from being whipped and tortured. But human trafficking isn't just a problem from long ago, happening only in faraway places. Today, the United States remains one of the world's top three trafficked nations. Pray for—and learn more about—trafficking victims by visiting sistersagainstrafficking.org.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30; Mark 7:1-13 (330). "Look kindly on the prayer and petition of your servant, O Lord."

Wednesday, Feb 09, 2022

Be a truly "catholic" Christian

In our daily lives as Catholics, it's easy to forget that we are members of a big church. Most of us are members of the Latin Church, which is the largest of the two dozen churches that make up the Catholic Church. The other 23 are Eastern churches. They use different liturgies, and some were established during the earliest times in church history. The Ethiopian Catholic Church, for example, uses the ancient Ge'ez liturgy—one of the oldest in existence—and can be traced back to the missionary work of Saint Mark the Apostle. Today, remember that the Catholic Church is truly universal!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 10:1-10; Mark 7:14-23 (331). "The queen of Sheba, having heard of Solomon's fame, came to test him with subtle questions."

Thursday, Feb 10, 2022

MEMORIAL OF SCHOLASTICA

The truth behind the tradition continues

Tradition says that Scholastica, today's saint, had significant influence on her twin, Saint Benedict of Nursia, who codified the monastic way of life with his famous Rule. The lack of documentation on Scholastica's life is curious, given her centrality in shaping Benedictine life. There are written accounts of her, but they are sparse. While the historical record is lean, clearly Benedictine women, of whom Scholastica is said to be the first, have achieved spiritual greatness, scholarship, and leadership in their own right over the centuries and illuminated the faith for all of us.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 11:4-13; Mark 7:24-30 (332). "For saying this, you may go. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

Friday, Feb 11, 2022

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES

Release the power of your touch

During the COVID-19 pandemic, many people have suffered from a sense of isolation and alienation, this despite the myriad forms of modern communication from calls, to Zoom, to social media posts. Nothing is quite the same as the up close and personal—a handshake, a pat on the back, an embrace, or a kiss. Indeed, as many physicians, spiritual healers, and wisdom figures will tell you, humans not only need physical touch but it has healing benefits. Jesus puts a finger in a man's ear and rubs his own saliva into the man's mouth to cure him. Through his touch, Jesus gives part of himself to others. Perhaps that is the secret to all healing. Each of us giving of ourselves to help others. Pray to Our Lady of Lourdes for the opportunity to provide a healing touch to someone in need.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 11:29-32; 12:19; Mark 7:31-37 (333). "He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Saturday, Feb 12, 2022

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Seventh heaven

From ancient times, the number seven was seen as the number of spirituality, perhaps because of the "seven moving luminaries" visible to the naked eye (the Sun and Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn). There are many examples of the use of the number seven in both Testaments, from the seven days of creation in Genesis to the seven churches of Revelation. Catholicism celebrates seven sacraments, identifies seven deadly sins and seven virtues, seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, and seven corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Today, the seventh day of the week, is a good day to reflect on the seven sorrows and seven joys of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 12:26-32; 13:33-34; Mark 8:1-10 (334). "Then, taking the seven loaves he gave thanks."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
