READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Joshua 5:9a, 10-12
2 Corinthians 5:17-21
Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel- Luke 13:1-9

The common belief during the time of Jesus was that suffering and pain were signs that a person was being punished for some sin they had committed (or even that their parents had committed). Jesus mentions two examples: the Galileans who had been reputedly murdered by order of Pontius Pilate while offering their sacrifices in the Temple and the men who had been killed at the construction site of the Siloam reservoir. Jesus asks his listeners if they believe these victims were greater sinners than other people and debunks this notion stating that we will ultimately all be judged by God after death.

Dear All – Christ's peace.

This Week in Prayer

Prayers for Ukraine – Thanks and blessings for all who were able to pray together on Monday night. Remember to keep praying for three causes in particular – Peace in the nation; protection for the last, the least, and the littlest; and mercy in the hearts of all combatants.

Sunday 6:00 pm Mass – It was good to be with you last Sunday at 6:00 pm. Quiet Mass is sometimes the right answer. We will continue the 6:00 pm Sunday Mass through Palm Sunday and possibly beyond.

Liturgical Ministries – We have started recruiting new Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Lectors, and Sacristans. The job descriptions will show you how easy it is to serve Jesus and your community by joining one of these ministries. No prior experience needed! Should every adult have 1 way of serving?

Your Liturgy Preferences for Worship Aids – The conversation about “worship aids” has evolved into a very enlightening conversation about missalette subscriptions. We will soon have samples of four options.

First Confessions – BIG blessings for our 35 youngsters who are making their First Confessions this month and their First Communions in May. It is a blessing to be with these children and their parents.

This Week in Service

Pregnancy Aid Center – Our Wednesday morning efforts to help the Pregnancy Aid Center, by organizing the donations they receive, is really catching on. If you want to join the project, email Marianne Gennaro at mgenn.3@gmail.com or email or call Jeanine Cavanagh at jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com or at 908-874-3141.

This Week in Community

BIG Sheets of Cardboard – Our Youth Group's annual “30 Hour Famine” is almost upon us. One of the exercises requires gigantic boxes – for refrigerators, big TVs, etc. If you have a big box or some big stretches of cardboard to offer up for the cause, please contact Bob Ferretti at bobf@sjmillstone.com Thanks!

Save the Date for Father Ray – This spring marks the 50th anniversary of Fr. Ray's ordination. The parish will honor Fr. Ray at and after the 4:45 Mass on Saturday, May 21. Details to follow.

Thanks for the Baby News – The turnout has been excellent. We are blessed to announce the births of several new babies into the families of our parishioners. The first notice came out last Wednesday and notices will come out every Wednesday. We will also pray for the young ones at weekend Masses. It is a blessing to be reminded that the miracles continue!

I send this with great gratitude and blessings – and with hopes for your Lenten disciplines. And right, it is a drag to lose that hour of sleep but, oh, what a blessing to come out of 6:00 pm Mass to see daylight!

Father Hank

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT; FIRST SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

Something to smile about

The International Day of Happiness celebrated today isn't about wearing a smiley face. This U.N.-sponsored observance has concrete aims: to end poverty, reduce inequality, and protect the planet. Certainly that would bring happiness, but how do we attain such lofty goals? Consider 19-year-old Catherine Spaulding (1793-1853), who led six women in the forming of the Sisters of Nazareth in Kentucky. Ready or not, Catherine ran a school, orphanage, and nursed the sick during epidemics. Neither age nor inexperience deterred her sisters from answering the needs of their society. Answer this generation's call and discover a reason to smile.

TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15; 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12; Luke 13:1-9 (30). "God called out to him from the bush, 'Moses! Moses!' He answered, 'Here I am.'"

Monday, Mar 21, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Commit to a better world

The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is observed annually on this, the anniversary of police in South Africa killing 69 people at a peaceful demonstration against apartheid in 1960. All these decades later, the violence of racial discrimination continues. The catechism instructs Catholics that racism "must be curbed and eradicated as incompatible with God's design." This year's theme is "Youth standing up against racism" with a focus on how the pandemic has especially hindered the education and employment prospects of young people from minority backgrounds. No matter your age, make a commitment this Lent to help put a stop to racism once and for all.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 5:1-15ab; Luke 4:24-30 (237). "When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury."

Tuesday, Mar 22, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Let living waters flow

It's World Water Day. This U.N. observance shines a light not only on the critical importance of a clean and adequate water supply—so essential, it's a basic human right—but also how it's endangered. In Laudato Si', Pope Francis identifies no less than five serious threats to our planet's water supply, some impacting our world right now, particularly among the poor. The 2005 murder of Sister Dorothy Stang, SNDdeN, an environmental martyr for her fierce protection of the Amazon and its people, highlights that the global "water wars" have already begun. Visit the website of the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns for ways you can help.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:25, 34-43; Matthew 18:21-35 (238). "Deliver us by your wonders, and bring glory to your name, O Lord."

Wednesday, Mar 23, 2022

MEMORIAL OF TURIBIUS OF MOGROVEJO, BISHOP

Time is of the essence

Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo was a defender of the voiceless. A Spanish missionary to Peru who became archbishop of Lima, he defended the rights of the indigenous people who suffered terribly during Spanish colonization. His favorite saying was, "Time is not our own and we must give a strict account of it." Many times, it can be easy to overlook those who are voiceless, to pass them on the street without a second thought. But as Saint Turibius taught, our time on Earth is limited, and we should spend it on the things that matter and can make a difference. Today, notice those around you who may not have a voice and reflect on how you can help them to be heard. Take a step toward doing so.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5-9; Matthew 5:17-19 (239). "Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the Kingdom of heaven."

Thursday, Mar 24, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Live your truth

Truth-telling is a central tenet of Judeo-Christian ethics. Today is World Day for Truth Concerning Human Rights, a focus that is essential because the loss of human rights is often built on lies stripping a group of people of their God-given dignity. Like so many Christian virtues, truth and honesty in the social sphere begin in small ways, with individuals living lives of personal integrity and then expecting the same of their leaders. As Saint Augustine says, "The greatest kindness one can render to any person is leading him to truth."

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:23-28; Luke 11:14-23 (240). "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters."

Friday, Mar 25, 2022

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD; NO ABSTINENCE REQUIRED

Pregnant with possibilities

Mary's pregnancy seems to get the fast track: Annunciation, Visitation, and then boom, it's Christmas. But the Solemnity of the Annunciation is exactly nine months before Christmas, honoring the natural process of pregnancy. There are not many visibly pregnant Marys in Catholic iconography, but a few stand out. In the Americas, there's Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, with Mary wearing a black sash customary for pregnant indigenous women. In Europe, you'll find Madonna del Parto, often depicted with a book on her belly, an illusion to the Word of God embodied in her womb. These images have been open to many interpretations from the truth of the Incarnation to the important role of women in salvation history. What do the images of Mother Mary inspire in you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:10-14; 8:10; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38 (545). "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son."

Saturday, Mar 26, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

The heart of mercy

We hear a lot about sacrifice during Lent. Not so much about mercy. Yet as the Lord reminds us in today's responsorial psalm (51), "It is mercy I desire, and not sacrifice." In a sense, mercy requires its own "giving up" activity. Giving up on getting our way, on keeping score, on getting even. Saint Thomas Aquinas defined mercy as the "compassion in our hearts." Let mercy, the love beating within, be your Lenten offering.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 6:1-6; Luke 18:9-14 (242). "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."
