Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel- Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

The Parable of the Prodigal Son is probably the most familiar of all the parables Jesus told. The title may be something of a misnomer as it leads us to believe that it is all about the transgressions of the wayward son. In fact, the parable is really all about the magnanimous love of the father. It mirrors other accounts in the Old Testament where forgiveness and unconditional love are found. In Genesis 33:4, Esau runs to his brother Jacob and welcomes and embraces him. Later in Genesis 45:28, Jacob will do the same when he learns his son Joseph is alive.

- Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's peace.

This Week in Prayer

Our Prayer Square for Ukraine – Two years ago, Patty and Tim Leicht were kind enough to paint the white stripes in the pedestrian crossing directly in front of the church. Taking advantage of last week's fine weather, staff members repainted those stripes yellow and blue, the Ukrainian colors. The stripes are meant to remind us to pray for the people of Ukraine as we enter church, while we are in church, and as we leave church. Please remember to pray especially for mercy in the hearts of all combatants and for protection and kindness for the last, the least, and the littlest in the war zones. It is really OK if you pause in the stripes to send up a prayer while standing in the reminder zone.

First Confessions – This year's round of First Reconciliations is complete. Greatest blessings for all the youngsters who have experienced the sacrament for the first time. And great blessings for all the parents who participated and fostered the blessings.

Thank Heaven for our Outside Ushers – We are all indebted to all our Liturgical Ministers. Their service enriches our prayer. Special thanks to the outside ushers who serve at our Wednesday morning Communion Services and those who serve at our Sunday 11:30 Mass. You make a giant difference in many lives.

This Week in Service

Last Weeks' Poor Box – You contributed $1,022.62 to Becca's Friends through your donations. Thanks!

Helping the Pregnancy Aid Center – The Wednesday helper groups are gaining beautiful steam. If you can help us help women in crisis pregnancies, please contact Jeanine at jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com

This Week in Community

Cardboard – Thank you for your generous donations of large cardboard boxes!

Save the Date for Father Ray – This spring marks the 50th anniversary of Fr. Ray's ordination. The parish will honor Fr. Ray at and after the 4:45 Mass on Saturday, May 21. Details to follow..

With blessings for your Lenten days of extra prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. May these days deepen your awe for Christ's love and mercy. Fr. Hank

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT; SECOND SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

An investment worth making

It's not uncommon to identify individuals, or groups of people, as unworthy of our time and attention. Sometimes these folks just plain bore us to tears. But more often, we view them as freeloaders, untrustworthy, or even bad to the bone. Jesus was criticized for dining with the wrong people: prostitutes (immoral), tax collectors (unpatriotic), and sinners (generally unsavory types). Jesus tells a story of a feast thrown for a "worthless" son to explain why he himself chooses to "waste" time on the undeserving. The lost need finding, and the dead need life restored. "Hospitality opens the gates of paradise," wrote Orthodox Elder Amphilochius of Patmos. Set another place at your table.

TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Joshua 5:9a, 10-12; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21; Luke 15:1-3, 11-32 (33). "Your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Tiny miracles

"Do you believe in miracles?" was a famous statement made by a sportscaster who was announcing an Olympic hockey game between the United States and Soviet teams in 1980—the underdog Americans won. Catholics believe in miracles, of course—but there has to be something more than mere unlikeliness to qualify. The church defines miracles as a "sign or wonder such as a healing, or control of nature, which can only be attributed to divine power." While we might not understand how or why miracles happen—or don't, even when we desperately ask—we can be assured that the God of the universe is constantly involved in our little lives out of boundless love. What's a greater miracle than that?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 65:17-21; John 4:43-54 (244). "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

Tuesday, Mar 29, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

A day for the Knights

The Knights of Columbus organization for Catholic men turns 140 years old today. The organization originally got its U.S. start as a mutual aid society for poor immigrant families, particularly those that lost their main source of income whenever fathers died on the job. To this day, "whether at home or abroad, charity is our Order's first principle and the basis for all we do as brother Knights," says Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. The Knights run the National Shrine of Saint John Paul II in Washington, D.C. Visit the shrine virtually, via its 38-minute "A Gift of Love" Virtual Exhibit Tour.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-9, 12; John 5:1-16 (245). "Jesus said to him, 'Rise, take up your mat, and walk.'"

Wednesday, Mar 30, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Let it be a hopeful Lent

Our faith is one of hope. Often we concentrate on the sacrifices and commitments we make during Lent: abstaining from certain treats, attending daily Mass, giving alms generously. But we do this in the hope that Easter will come and Jesus will rise from the dead. Reflect on the spirit of hope that is at the root of your Lenten observance. Here are some words of inspiration from Pope Francis: "No matter where God has planted you, hope. Always hope. Believe in the existence of the most noble and beautiful truths and trust that God, through the Holy Spirit, is ushering everything toward the good, toward Christ's embrace."

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 49:8-15; John 5:17-30 (246). "The hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and will come out, those who have done good deeds to the resurrection of life."

Thursday, Mar 31, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Rigor has a reason

We are now four weeks into Lent, at which point, disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving might not deliver much pious glow. The church developed the tradition of 40 days of Lent based on the 40 days Jesus was tempted in the desert prior to his public ministry. A six-week season of prayer, penance, and almsgiving is meant to instill in us awareness, humility, and love, but most of all, the realization of our utter dependence on God. As Saint Teresa of Ávila says, "Whoever has God lacks nothing. God alone suffices." Take a few moments to reflect on the ways God has sustained you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:7-14; John 5:31-47 (247). "How can you believe, when you accept praise from one another and do not seek the praise that comes from the only God?"

Friday, Apr 01, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Make the uncommon choice for the common good

The "common good" is central to being Catholic. Defined at Vatican II, the common good is the "sum of those conditions of social life which allow social groups and their individual members relatively thorough and ready access to their own fulfillment" (Gaudium et Spes 26). It requires appreciation for the relational nature of human beings and an absolute respect for the dignity of all persons, including but never limited to our own self. It also means ruffling a feather or two as we stare rampant individualism in the face. The common good is always evolving, but our motivation in its pursuit never changes: love of neighbor as ourselves. Where will such love take you next?

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 2:1a, 12-22; John 7:1-2, 10, 25-30 (248). "Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, Reproaches us for transgressions of the law."

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS OF PAOLA

Small wonder

Francis of Paola lived in a cave but he could see well beyond his confines. His vision for a community of "Minim" ("the least") inspired countless followers to join him in a life of service to the poor and forgotten. Talk about countercultural living! Such radical service requires a whole different set of priorities. For Francis it was a desire for holiness achieved through humility. Each of us can take some steps to "minimize" the excesses we might indulge in and join Francis in serving others in some small way. It's the least we can do!

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 11:18-20; John 7:40-53 (249). "Never before has anyone spoken like this man."
