READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21
Galatians 5:1, 13-18
Luke 9:51-62

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel - Luke 9:11b-17

The story of the miracle of the feeding of the 5000 (also known as the miracle of the loaves and fishes) was important to the early Church because it illustrated how the leaders of the Church were to feed their flock through the Word of God and especially through the Eucharist, just as the first disciples of Christ had done. It is the only miracle that is found in all four gospels: Matthew 14:13-21, Mark 6:31-44, John 6:1-14 and Luke's Gospel which we heard today. Matthew's Gospel also contains a second story about the miracle of feeding 4000 (Mt.15:32-39). Dorothy Gearon

Happy Father's Day

Corpus Christi

Dear All – Christ's peace

Drum roll please . . . . Thanks to the hundreds of parishioners who participated in the vote to name the food truck. There is no need for a recount. The winner, having taken 76.4 percent of the vote, is HOLY CHOW. We thank the two parishioners who submitted the name independently – Janet Robinson and Jim Blum. Thanks again to everyone who submitted names, everyone who voted, and everyone involved in the food truck project.

The Baby Bottles! – Thank you for providing such great assistance to the Center for Great Expectations. You contributed more than $9,000 – the most ever. God bless our Pro-life team and our Knights.

Welcome to Our Summer Seminarian, Joseph Ho. Please join me in welcoming Joseph Ho. Joe, who will be with us until August 2, is a student at Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall. (Go Pirates!) He is scheduled to be ordained a deacon next year and a priest in the spring of 2024. We will keep him very busy!

PASTOR'S BRAG

Like so many of you, I am all about commending our parishioners for their great achievements. We were doing pretty well with that – until the pandemic changed our format. Is it time to get back to it? If you supply the info, I will share it – with gusto! This week the news is too good not to share. Two of our parishioners – a mother and daughter combination no less – have been named "Teachers of the Year" by our school district.

Erin Chung, a Special Education Teacher at Hillsborough Elementary School, has been awarded the Governor's Teacher of the Year Award. Erin's citation speaks of her 15 years of dedicated service, her ability to bring productive calm to her classroom and her students, and her generous service as a CCD teacher at Saint Joe's.

Joan Murphy (the mom) is a fifth grade Learning/Language Disability teacher at the Auten Road Intermediate School. Joan has been awarded the Governor's Teacher of the Year for the 2021-2022 school year "because of her dedication and service to the Hillsborough School District." Joan is also a lector, usually at the 4:45.

Congratulations Erin and Joan. What blessings you are to our community and our parish!

With all best blessings for you and your loved ones – as we wander further into summer's blessings

The purpose of power

We can use power to help others—or to help ourselves. Jesus chooses to feed the multitude and invites his followers to do the same. Lord John Acton (1834-1902), an English Catholic historian, counseled caution with our authority: "Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." Acton also noted, "Liberty is not the power of doing what we like, but the right to do what we ought" and "The will of the people cannot make just that which is unjust." This Father's Day, pray for fathers and others to act wisely and lovingly when exercising their authority.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 14:18-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; Luke 9:11b-17 (169). "[Jesus] said to them, 'Give them some food yourselves.' "

Monday, Jun 20, 2022

The only measure that matters

When you were a kid, did your parents measure you by marking your height on a wall each birthday? Perhaps later report cards and sports trophies were a measure of your progress. In adulthood, do you measure yourself by rungs you've climbed on a corporate ladder, or by the increasing figures in your bank account? Some measures are less quantifiable—and far more important. Are you becoming more forgiving, more patient, more giving, more humble, more faithful? Are you getting closer to God? Comparison to others is no measure at all when God knows your heart completely and is helping you grow.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 17:5-8, 13-15a, 18; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Tuesday, Jun 21, 2022

Find the happy medium

Young Aloysius—eldest child of a powerful Italian Renaissance family—was scandalized by all the excesses around him. In his corner of the world, corruption and promiscuity abounded. So impressionable was the boy that, as he began to contemplate religious life, he increasingly added penitential practices that promoted the opposite extreme, excessive mortification. Later, as he entered the Society of Jesus, he admitted "I am a piece of twisted iron" and "I entered religious life to get twisted straight." Are there habits in your own life, no matter how holy, that might benefit from the virtue of moderation?

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 19:9b-11, 14-21, 31-35a, 36; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you."

Wednesday, Jun 22, 2022

Make some noise

Paulinus of Nola was a fourth-century Roman poet before he converted to Christianity and became a bishop, which might hint at what inspired him to take the imaginative step of introducing the ringing of bells into church services. The psalms—sacred poetry—encourage us to "make a joyful noise to the Lord" (Ps. 98:4) and that is what bells bring to the life and liturgy of the church. A medieval handbell came to be known as a nola and steeple bells as campanas, from Campania, the region of Italy Paulinus oversaw as bishop. The clear, crisp tones of a bell at liturgy remind us that something sacred is in the air. Consider incorporating a bell into your own life of prayer and contemplation.

MEMORIAL OF PAULINUS OF NOLA, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 22:8-13; 23:1-3; Matthew 7:15-20 (373). "By their fruits you will know them."

Thursday, Jun 23, 2022

Give birth to possibilities

Today is the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, one of the earliest feast days established in the church. John the Baptist is the only person outside of Jesus and Mary whose birth is honored with a feast day, indicating his importance. His unlikely birth to the aged Elizabeth has long been a popular subject for artists. It has miraculous parallels to the birth of Isaac (born to the aged Sarah and Abraham) and to the birth of Christ himself (born to a virgin). Let John's birth remind you that God continuously brings forth life out of seemingly impossible situations.

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet."

Friday, Jun 24, 2022

Don't lose heart

It's tempting to ditch traditional religious images because they can feel so unrelatable today. They can leave us uttering "meh" instead of "amen." But what happens when we look beyond the artistic style and focus on the symbolism itself? Take the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is never portrayed as a perfectly pristine heart, untouched and unaffected. Instead, we see a heart that knows both deep suffering and sacrifice (the crown of thorns) and great love and passion (flames). Now that's relatable! You can surf the web and find an image of the Sacred Heart that speaks to you and make it part of your prayer today.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:11-16; Romans 5:5b-11; Luke 15:3-7 (172). "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts."

Saturday, Jun 25, 2022

Look to your heart

Today's memorial focuses on Mary's heart, a way of speaking of her profound internal life as depicted in scripture. Images of Mary's heart often show it pierced by seven swords, representing the different sorrows she endured, from having to flee into Egypt with her infant son to having to witness his crucifixion and burial. Each of us has our own list of sorrows accumulated over a lifetime—griefs and losses we carry with us in our hearts. But Mary's heart reflects much more than sorrow. It reflects her love for Jesus, her courage in accepting her calling, her resilience in the face of hardship. These qualities also live in your heart. In honoring Mary's heart, you honor your own heart, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Lamentations 2:2, 10-14, 18-19; Luke 2:41-51 (573). "And his mother kept all these things in her heart."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
