READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Isaiah 66:10-14c
Galatians 6:14-18
Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel - Luke 9:51-62

Chapter 9 in Luke's Gospel centers on Jesus' final journey into Jerusalem where he will fulfill God's plan and be exalted. Using Mark's Gospel as a starting point, Luke adds more details from various other sources including the hostile reception in the Samaritan village and the man who wishes to be excused so he can bury his father. The final chapters in Luke's Gospel laid a framework for the early Church by stressing that following and spreading the Gospel are paramount and must come before everything else. Disciples of Christ should look for other places to preach when they meet hostility and are turned away. They should also be prepared to suffer just as Jesus did. - Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's peace

BIG thanks to all who took a "Christmas in June" tag from the Gathering Space tree. Those gifts, enable the members of our Youth Group to do great work when they hit the ground in Tennessee. Nothing says "Happy June Christmas" like paint rollers, spackle knives, etc..

God Bless our Texas-bound Young Adults heading for the Texas/Mexico border where they will volunteer at the Catholic Charities Humanitarian Respite Center in McAllen, Texas to serve families at the border. Pray for them. It will be hot where they are working.

God bless our Tennessee-bound High School Students – They take off the week after July 4. They are the ones who need the tools that you are donating this weekend. Say a prayer for those parents who are entrusting their children to their first church trip.

Ukraine's Refugees – Mother General Beata and I have had some amazingly rich exchanges. We will send another $10,000 today. Of that, $5,000 will help the Sisters in Poland who are helping the refugees from Ukraine. The other $5,000 will be used to set up and run a pre-school for young, domestic refugees – i.e., children from Eastern Ukraine whose families are currently stuck in Western Ukraine to avoid the violence. The preschool will be located in Winnica. These internally displaced families have a hard time finding jobs, and when they can, they have no one to look after their children. Your gifts are enabling the Sisters to feed and care for the youngsters while the parents are at work or taking a much-needed respite. I hope to have more news very soon about the success of both programs. Meanwhile, the unvarnished message from Mother Beata is: "Thank you for you and your parishioners for such a big amount of money sent through us to the refugees from Ukraine. They appreciate so much this help." Somewhere out there, a Ukrainian refugee is feeling peace that they would not have known without your help.

Welcome to Our Summer Seminarian, Joseph Ho – Please join me in welcoming him. Joe will be with us until August 2, helping out in many ways. He spent his second week here with the West Virginia builders. You will be seeing more of Joe at weekend Masses and all-around campus.

Holy Chow! – Again, thanks to all who participated in the selection of the food truck's name. It has been great fun. Our Holy Chow committee is now figuring out how to create and select the tag line and the logo. Stay tuned!

All best blessings,

Father Hank

POOR BOX

Contributions to the Poor Box this weekend will help our Youth Group's trip to Catholic Heart Work Camp in Tennessee in July. More specifically, we are hoping to raise $2,900 from the Poor Box. Why that amount? After all the budgets were set and balanced, the bus company, understandably, imposed a fuel surcharge of $2,900. Help if you can. Do not worry about it if this is not a great financial time for you.

UPCOMING SERVICE TRIPS

Day Missions: August 7, 21, and 28.

Weekend Mission: September 16-18.

July 9-16 – Forty high school students and their adult companions go to Catholic Heart Work Camp in Nashville, Tennessee to provide direct service to families and organizations that need the help.

August 1-3 – Youth group work projects here at church for students who cannot travel.

August 7, 21, and 28 – Adult day trip missions to Saint Francis Center in Philly.

September 16-18 – Adult weekend mission to Saint Francis in Philly.

Respect your freedom

The Statue of Liberty is the symbol of our nation's reverence for personal freedom. Yet too many of us lose our liberty to substance abuse and other addictive behaviors, including gambling, pornography, overeating, and compulsive consumerism. More subtle than these overt practices are patterns of thinking and feeling we may be losing control over: anxiety, depression, rage, racism. Today is the World Day Against Drug Abuse and Trafficking. Prayerfully reflect on behaviors or emotional states that make you feel less free, and take a step today toward liberty.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21; Galatians 5:1, 13-18; Luke 9:51-62 (99). "For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery."

Everyone needs a mother's love

Saint Cyril of Alexandria died on this day in 444. He is remembered for many things—admittedly not all of them good—as the archbishop of his city, which was at the height of its influence over the Mediterranean world during his time. One of his most enduring legacies was his hard-fought teaching on Mary as the "Mother of God," which created the basis for all other theology about Mary. Saints aren't perfect, and neither was Cyril—the man who helped connect us to a tender, loving mother in Mary also committed acts of violence and injustice. Perhaps his deep flaws illustrate just how much all of us—even saints who champion Mary—need her intercession.

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 2:6-10, 13-16; Matthew 8:18-22 (377). "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

Tuesday, Jun 28, 2022

Come alive with faith

For Irenaeus, the Incarnation says as much about the redeemed as it does our Redeemer. Yes, Christian doctrine teaches that Jesus Christ is both fully human and fully divine. And, yes, Irenaeus battled the heresy known as Gnosticism—which emphasized the divine nature of Jesus at the expense of his humanity. But for Irenaeus, the Incarnation also meant that the "glory of God is a human being fully alive." He believed that God became human so that humans might become divine. How will you choose to be "fully alive" today, in order to glorify God?

MEMORIAL OF IRENAEUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 3:1-8; 4:11-12; Matthew 8:23-27 (378). "The men were amazed and said, 'What sort of man is this?'"

Wednesday, Jun 29, 2022

Rest in peace

You might think that the two foundational giants of the Christian tradition who share a feast day would have been best buddies, but in fact Peter and Paul had their differences, especially around the question of whether people who weren't Jews needed to observe Jewish Law in order to become followers of Jesus. It is not entirely clear whether they fully reconciled their differences before they were both martyred in Rome (on the same day, tradition says), though it is clear that Paul's position carried the day over time. Perhaps there's a message for today's divided church—we can disagree with one another, even on matters of great importance, and still rest together in the same great tradition.

SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Acts 12:1-11; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18; Matthew 16:13-19 (591). "Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Thursday, Jun 30, 2022

Keep their memory alive

It is a deeply human act to remember the dead, especially those who died as result of acts of violence. Today's memorial for the First Martyrs of the Church in Rome places the church squarely within this tradition of remembrance. We recall innumerable Christians who were put to death in gruesome ways by the emperor Nero, who blamed Christians for a devastating fire in Rome in the year 64. Nero did not crush the church, and neither has the memory of those early martyrs been erased. Your reading these words keeps alive their memory and their sacrifice.

MEMORIAL OF THE FIRST MARTYRS OF THE CHURCH IN ROME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 7:10-17; Matthew 9:1-8 (380). "He then said to the paralytic, 'Rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home.'" "

Friday, Jul 01, 2022

Mixed legacies

On April 1, 2022, Pope Francis offered an historic apology to Inuit, Métis, and First Nations delegations for the church's role in harming Canadian Indigenous Peoples in Catholic residential schools. This is no small thing to do—for the church or for us individually. It is difficult to admit that we, and members of the church we call our own, have at times harmed others. Yet it is essential to begin the journey of healing. With Pope Francis, let us commit to an honest reevaluation of the church's colonial-era missionary efforts, such as those of Junípero Serra in what is now California. Let us also be aware of our own shortcomings, seeking forgiveness with humility and making meaningful amends wherever possible.

MEMORIAL OF JUNÍPERO SERRA, FRANCISCAN PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 8:4-6, 9-12; Matthew 9:9-13 (381). "Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land!"

Saturday, Jul 02, 2022

Woe is me

The Pharisees get a bad rap in the gospels, typically portrayed as Jesus' antagonists, narrow-minded and legalistic, focused on outward ritual rather than inner renewal. And surely there are elements that ring true. At the same time, some of their beliefs were quite compatible with Christianity as it evolved, including the belief in life after death, the resurrection of the body, keeping the Sabbath holy (i.e., Sunday Mass obligation), and the priority to spread the faith. It's easy to see the blind spots and shortcomings of others. Harder to see our own. Are you aware of your own inner Pharisee?

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 9:11-15; Matthew 9:14-17 (382). "Why do we and the Pharisees fast much, but your disciples do not fast?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
