READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23
Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11
Luke 12:13-21

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel - Luke 11:1-13

Of the four Gospels, the Lord's Prayer is only found in today's Gospel and in Matthew's. While both versions are similar, there are some differences. In Matthew's Gospel the Lord's Prayer is part of the Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 6:9-13), while in Luke, Jesus teaches the prayer in a time of prayer. Although slightly different, both versions of the Lord's Prayer follow the same basic formula: 1) They both begin with an address to God as Father and a glorification of his name. 2) The needs of the disciples are addressed next. And 3) the prayer ends with God's forgiveness for us that leads us to forgive others. Matthew's version is more familiar as it is prayed at Mass and in other prayer settings.

Dear All – Christ's Peace!

Baptism Schedules – As we continue to transition out of pandemic mode, we are learning what worked and what did not. Interestingly, Saturday morning baptisms have become quite popular. To make this easy for everyone, we will start to encourage families to celebrate baptisms on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month – at 9:30, 10:00 or 10:30. Of course, we still welcome baptisms at weekend Masses.

This Summer's Three Service Trips – The last of our three summer service trips ended last week. The bus from Tennessee, carrying forty students and chaperones, returned on Saturday. Thanks to Jeanine Cavanagh for leading the adults' trip to West Virginia and thanks to Bob Ferretti for leading the young adults to Texas and the high school students to Tennessee. Now, it is almost time to let August be August..

Caregivers Ministry – Save the date for our Fall retreat on September 24. More information to follow!

Helping the Sisters Help Ukraine's Refugees – Half of the donations you made are still available to help the Sisters help Ukraine's refugees. A considerable portion of the aid will go toward supporting (and, we hope, expanding) the full-service day-care center in Winnica, Ukraine. Their services to the refugees are continuing as always. But, for now, I am giving Mother General a break from our questions and conversations, as she is singularly overloaded. We will have more news in a few weeks.

Outreach to Young Families – It is official! Starting in September, Liz Loughlin will coordinate our outreach and programs for parents with young children. Welcome, Liz!

Blessings of Brains and Artifacts – Save the Date – at the 11:30 Mass on Sunday, September 11, just before the parish picnic

With great blessings for you and your beloved – and with hopes that you are having plenty of fun.

Father Hank

HOLY CHOW FOOD TRUCK

The parish food truck ministry swings into gear in mid-September. Between now and then, we will be seeking your input on taglines and logos. We will also be asking you to be ready to cook when your section at Mass is invited to prepare the week's casseroles. Recipes and pans will be provided. There will also be a need for a few people to serve the food, etc.

This year the award goes to . . .

Are you a prize-winning parent? Do you know someone who deserves recognition for nurturing the future of society? Every fourth Sunday of July since 1994, our country has celebrated Parents' Day. Nationwide, parents are nominated for exemplary service and dedication to their families and to the broader local community. Of course, most parents have humbler aspirations than garnering a trophy for their trouble. They hope simply to nurture honest, decent adults who feel empathy and treat others kindly. Celebrate the courage of parents and support the essential work they do.

You can't do it all

Distinguished poet and scholar Sister Madeleva Wolff, C.S.C. was the author of more than 20 books and the third president of her alma mater, Saint Mary's College, in Notre Dame, Indiana, where she served for 26 years. She accomplished much—but like most of us, struggled with how much more there always was to do. She wrote, "Thinking of things to be done, hopes to be realized, persons to be helped, I say laughingly that I go to a multitude of funerals daily, burying so many deceased projects, so much of what I have had to let die and must bury without regret." On this, the anniversary of her death, pray for the grace to surrender to God when you are overwhelmed with busyness.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 4:7-15; Matthew 20:20-28 (605). "Can you drink the chalice that I am going to drink?"

A grand mission for grandparents

At a time when grandparents shoulder an ever-greater role in the nurturing of children—helping young families navigate the many complex realities of modern life—it's fortunate we have an international Catholic Grandparents Association, founded in 2009, to help fulfill a dual mission: "passing on the faith and keeping prayer at the heart of family life." With Saints Joachim and Anne as patrons, the association hosts a podcast and encourages parishes to develop a thriving ministry for and by grandparents, recognizing their unique evangelizing presence. Remembering grandparents, pray today the official prayer of the 2022 World Meeting of Families.

Take responsibility

Racial tension, economic unrest, and summer heat have fueled countless murderous altercations throughout America's short history. July 27, 1919 marks the start of one of the most violent and tragic race riots sparked by the stoning and drowning of a young black boy in Chicago who inadvertently swam into an area of Lake Michigan reserved for "whites only." By the end, 38 people were dead, 537 injured, and 1,000 families made homeless. These statistics are stacked upon decades before and after this date of the extreme violence that plagues our nation. In their 1994 statement, Confronting a Culture of Violence: A Catholic Framework for Action, the U.S. Catholic Bishops conclude that "our society needs both more personal responsibility and broader social responsibility to overcome the plague of violence in our land and the lack of peace in our hearts."

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 15:10, 16-21; Matthew 13:44-46 (403). "I will free you from the hand of the wicked, and rescue you from the grasp of the violent."

Divine by any name

An accomplished Catholic writer used to joke that "God" was the worst nickname ever: The term had acquired way too much baggage for him. Fortunately, the church has dozens of terms and metaphors for God, including the vivid image of God as potter. The reality of God is beyond any one term or comparison, so it is fortunate that the Christian tradition gives us so many. Light, Rock, Creator, Wisdom, Savior, Shepherd, Fortress, Vine, Shield, and on and on. What terms help bring God alive for you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 18:1-6; Matthew 13:47-53 (404).

"Indeed, like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, house of Israel."

What friends are for

It's not easy to picture God as one of our friends. We can't just call God up to meet us for a cup of coffee. But friendship has many characteristics that help us better understand our own relationship with God. "Friendship," writes Pope Francis, "is no fleeting or temporary relationship, but one that is stable, firm and faithful, and matures with the passage of time. A relationship of affection that brings us together and a generous love that makes us seek the good of our friend" (Christus vivit §152). For further reflection, look to Jesus himself and his friends Martha, Mary, and Lazarus.

MEMORIAL OF MARTHA, MARY, AND LAZARUS, FRIENDS OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 26:1-9 (405); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607). "Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him."

Golden moments

Peter Chrysologus (c.380–c.450) is the hands-down champion homilist of our tradition. Known as the "doctor of homilies," his name literally means "golden-tongued." Have you been moved by a great homily? Pope Francis (Evangelii Gaudium, 135) said that "The homily can actually be an intense and happy experience of the Spirit, a consoling encounter with God's word, a constant source of renewal and growth." Great homilies can be life changing, bringing about a deep conversion. May you encounter a great homily and be touched by the golden word of God.

MEMORIAL OF PETER CHRYSOLOGUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 26:11-16, 24; Matthew 14:1-12 (406). "For in truth it was the LORD who sent me to you, to speak all these things for you to hear."
