POOR BOX

September 25 – October 9 HOLY C.H.O.W.

Your generous donations will help meet some of the basic costs: some of the food and the pans, truck fuel and maintenance (minimal), cleaning supplies, and "to go" containers. Almost all the food is donated. Thanks for keeping the mission rolling.

Dear All, Christ's peace.

Greatest gratitude and blessings for all who made the parish picnic such an excellent one. Thanks to the Knights for the outstanding food and to Pete Macor and the other musicians of "The Big Horse Band" for the terrific entertainment. The Knights estimate that 540 people participated. The ice cream man, supplied by a very generous parishioner, served 314 cones, sundaes, and shakes. Hearty cheers for all the parents of the young kids who gathered and played under the tent, and had their faces painted. Speaking of faces painted - huge thanks to the face painters, bounce house monitors and kids' game players. Major blessings for all who played croquet, even for the Long Island Lanahan who beat Father Hank and Zylas by ONE stroke in the final match! N.B., this is the second year that a member of the Lanahan family won. Worth investigating?

6:00 pm Mass returned last Sunday. It will run from now until Columbus Day, at which time we will reassess the need. Meanwhile, come on back!

11:30 Mass Outside. Some folks asked if last week's indoor 11:30 marked the end of the outdoor season. Nope! It was a one-shot deal. We expect to be outside for the next (almost) two months.

Bereavement Group. The bereavement group at the cathedral comes very highly recommended. If the death of a loved one has left you bereft, join this group. It starts September 28 and runs for eight Wednesday evenings. Questions? Call Danielle at 732-763-0972 or Jesse at 732-895-2563. Email me if you want to join but transportation is an issue.

Holy C.H.O.W! made its first mission trip last Tuesday, Feast of Saint John Chrysostom. God blessed the trip enormously. The 42 folks who received the food (a hot dinner and plenty of take-home groceries) were very pleased. The helpers worked as a very well-oiled machine, the weather was picture perfect, and the message was beautiful and unmistakable: Jesus cares and Saint Joe's cares. We will provide the meals and groceries every Tuesday at 5:30. Say a prayer for us.

Holy C.H.O.W! – The Tagline. Two folks, Ralph Moreno and Jim Samartino, submitted versions of the winning tagline. Both suggested we convert "chow" from a word to an acronym and have the letters of "C.H.O.W!" stand for "Christian Hospitality On Wheels." Bingo! Great thanks to Ralph and Jim for their ideas. Thanks to all who submitted taglines and names. And thanks again to Janet Robinson (with a close version from Jim Blum) for the brilliant idea of "Holy Chow."

With all best blessings as we start the Fall season!

Fr. Hank

We are grateful for your past involvement in IHN, now HOME. For more than 25 years our parish has participated in this agency's stellar work in assisting the homeless! From the very beginning our volunteers not only assisted other parishes in providing shelter for the homeless, but we also were able to host families in the basement of our former church building in East Millstone. More recently we have been able to host them at our building in Millstone Borough. Now, we need your assistance more than ever! .

HOME (Housing Outreach Multifaith Empowerment)
HOME does a superb job of organizing local churches to provide temporary shelter for homeless families. Saint Joe's participates in two ways. First, we house and feed families in the Parish Hall for a week every spring. Second, we partner with our beloved neighbor, Hillsborough Reformed Church (HRC), when they host three weeks every year.

Can you help?

HRC will be HOME's home from November 13-20. Find out more from Jeanine and Tina after all the Masses the weekend of October 1-2. Questions? Email Jeanine at Jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com or Tina at tina@androulakis.com .

NEW PARENTS & YOUNG FAMILIES

Do you have a baby on the way? Getting settled with a newborn at home? If so, we have good news for you! We would like to support you during this exciting and exhausting new chapter in your life by providing you with a few welcome home meals! If you are interested, or if you know of parishioners who have recently had or are about to have a baby, email Liz Loughlin at eloughlin@sjmillstone.com.

Help us help God help you! Be on the lookout, in the next few weeks, for a survey that will help us to help. Your answers to the brief, electronic survey will help us grow the new programs in inspired ways. We need your input to discern what God wants and to determine the best ways forward in our efforts to provide what God wants our young families to experience. Thanks in advance for your insights and feedback. Questions? Email Liz Loughlin at eloughlin@sjmillstone.com. We appreciate your willingness to provide feedback to help this ministry grow.

Blessed are the wanderers

Biblical prophets warn the comfortable not to overlook the suffering of those less fortunate. Today on World Day of Migrants and Refugees, we support the church's solidarity with uprooted people since the Second World War. A mass exodus to the West of Soviet bloc refugees prompted Pope Pius XII, future Pope Paul VI, and layman James Norris to form the International Catholic Migration Commission. The ICMC continued its response to the "boat people" of Vietnam, Bosnian Muslims, Afghani refugees, and more. Their efforts restore dignity, inspire change, and companion the displaced. Welcome the stranger.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 6:1a, 4-7; 1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31 (138). "Thus says the LORD the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion!"

Give them a healer's welcome

Believed to have been twin brothers, Cosmas and Damian were third-century Christian Syrian physicians who accepted no payment for caring for the sick—and made many converts as a result of their selfless service. They were eventually martyred by the Romans. Many of us know "saints" in the healthcare profession who work physically and emotionally demanding jobs, make personal sacrifices (including endangering their own health during the pandemic), and have a seemingly endless supply of compassion despite it all. The next time you or someone you love needs medical help, ask Cosmas and Damian to support the professionals coming to your aid.

MEMORIAL OF COSMAS AND DAMIAN, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 1:6-22; Luke 9:46-50 (455). "Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me."

Enrich the faith of others

Before co-founding the Daughters of Charity—serving the "poorest of the poor"—Saint Vincent de Paul began the Congregation of the Mission in 1625. Priests who joined had three requirements: to live in imitation of Christ, to take the gospel to the rural poor, and to educate fellow priests in the practical matters of being a priest. When he realized peasants knew so little about the faith and that local priests were poorly trained in administering the sacrament of Penance, Vincent preached such a stirring parish mission that priests from a nearby town had to be called in to help him hear confessions. How can you help others practice their faith?

MEMORIAL OF VINCENT DE PAUL, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 3:1-3, 11-17, 20-23; Luke 9:51-56 (456). "He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem."

Carry on the work of the dead among the living

At the time of Jesus, the Jewish custom was to bury a person in the family burial cave the same day they died. The body was left for a year while the family mourned, the first seven days in shivah, followed by a less intense 30-day period of shloshim. The burial rite was not complete, however, as the family would return to the cave a year later for the "second burial," the collection of remains to be placed with the bones of other ancestors in the family ossuary. It is theorized that when Jesus commented, "Let the dead bury their dead," he may have been referring to this second burial, suggesting to his disciples that there was more urgent work to be done among the living. Pray for the dead but serve the living!

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 9:1-12, 14-16; Luke 9:57-62 (457). "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God."

Angels watching over us

Today we honor the only three angels in scripture who have names. Michael is cited in the books of Daniel and Revelation and is known for being a protector. Gabriel is most famously a messenger, having relayed information to Daniel, but best known for giving Mary the news that she would be mother to our Savior. Raphael is associated with healing and appears in a series of adventures in the Book of Tobit, including his cure of Tobit's blindness. At various times, each of us needs protection, a message from God, or healing. May these three archangels lift our prayers when we and our communities most need these things.

FEAST OF MICHAEL, GABRIEL, AND RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS
TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 or Revelation 12:7-12a; John 1:47-51 (647). "Amen, amen, I say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Get to know the word

If you are a fan of scripture, then right next to your Bible should be The Jerome Biblical Commentary. The 2,000-plus-page book is a treasure trove of insight about the Bible written by Roman Catholic scholars from across the globe. It is a great resource for helping people to engage more deeply with scripture through study and reflection. The book is named after Saint Jerome, who is best known for his biblical commentaries and translations. Jerome believed that "Ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ." It's never too late to increase your knowledge. What would be the first scripture passage you'd look up if you had the book in hand? Why?

MEMORIAL OF JEROME, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
TODAY'S READINGS: Job 38:1, 12-21; 40:3-5; Luke 10:13-16 (459).
"Whoever listens to you listens to me."

In loving color

Though she only lived 24 brief years, Thérèse of Lisieux, the "little flower," was so spiritually mature she was asked to guide novices who were entering her Carmelite order. She used vivid metaphors, comparing the Trinity to a kaleidoscope because the three mirrors transform simple images into colorful designs. She wrote: "As long as our actions, even the smallest, do not fall away from the focus of Divine Love, the Holy Trinity, symbolized by the three mirrors, allows them to reflect wonderful beauty. Jesus . . . always sees beauty in everything we do."

MEMORIAL OF THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS, CARMELITE NUN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
TODAY'S READINGS: Job 42:1-3, 5-6, 12-17; Luke 10:17-24 (460).
"Turning to the disciples in private he said, 'Blessed are the eyes that see what you see.'"
